

SEN. THOS. WALSH DIES ABROAD TRAIN THIS MORN

WEALTHY DENVER
BROKER IS FREED
BY KIDNAP GANG

Is Liberated Seventeen Days After Being Abducted Feb. 12

Denver, March 2—(AP)—A ransom of $60,000 was paid shortly before Charles Boettcher, 31-year-old heir to riches, was freed here last night, ending nearly seventeen days and nights of blackness, discomfort and threats in the hands of kidnapers.

It was revealed today that Dr. John M. Foster, young physician and friend of the kidnaped broker, kept a rendezvous with the abductors in behalf of Claude K. Boettcher, the multimillionaire father, and paid the demanded $60,000.

"Thank God, it's all over," young Boettcher said in his first utterance since the kidnapers released him from an automobile in the stockyards district unharmed.

Sudden Climax
The climax to the west's most amazing kidnapping came with startling suddenness. Shortly after 6 P. M. last night, Dr. Foster drove to a designated spot near the Municipal Airport. In his automobile he had the $60,000.

There the kidnapers were waiting. Although they remained out of sight themselves, they allowed the physician a glimpse of their blindfolded victim. Foster dropped the bag containing the money and raved for Denver to inform young Boettcher's family.

The kidnapers turned him out of a motorcar in the stockyards district and ordered him to "walk around the block and you'll find a telephone."

Boettcher, who said he was blindfolded during the entire 404 hours of his captivity, complied and telephoned his home from a drugstore. Police, who despite reports of a breach with the family were being kept informed of progress in the case, went into action and within a few minutes had engaged in a running gun battle with a car believed to contain the kidnapers. The car escaped.

Boettcher was taken to the home of a friend where Chief Clark questioned him. Then he was taken home to bed.

Father Excited
The elder Boettcher, apparently threatened by a revolver and threatened by a revolver and who were congregated in front of his home when he returned from a reunion with his son.

"Get back or I'll shoot," he cried. Patrolman Ralph Fairley drew his pistol while the others dispersed. A friend disarmed the father and he later apologized.

Young Boettcher first telephoned his mother, Mrs. Millson McCormick from the drugstore. She called two friends of her son, Dr. Jack Foster and Norman Barwise, and they sped to the spot and picked him up. He was taken to the home of Sidney Sinshemer, a friend, where he met Chief Clark and his father.

Followed Orders
Boettcher told the Chief the men ordered him to count 150 before taking the bandage from his eyes. In this he complied, he said. He said he was blindfolded immediately after he was kidnapped and that the abductor drove a night and a day before stopping. This verified notes sent his father by him while he was a captive.

The blindfold consisted of strips of adhesive tape tightly fixed to his skin. They were removed only when he wrote the notes to his father. Then he said, the men stood behind him and he saw nothing of the men who held him prisoner.

"It was late in the evening when we arrived at the house, of which I can give no description," he said. "The air and floor seemed damp and I believe it was in a basement."

"On the trip to the house one of the men would stop and guard me when he needed gasoline and the other would walk to a filling station."

"They were agreeable enough and I suffered no harm at their hands. When we arrived at the house they cooked meals and I was free to eat at any time and almost whatever I ordered."

Special Session
In March Rumored

Washington, March 2—(AP)—The Capitol heard today that President-elect Roosevelt probably would call the special session of the new congress late in March, but Speaker Garner said he had no information.

"The last time I talked with Mr. Roosevelt, he suggested that the special session be held in mid-April," Garner told inquirers.

"At the conference in New York in January I suggested it be held as early as possible, so we would get the job done and get out of here before dog days."

"I am perfectly agreeable to me to hold the special session as early in March as possible."

There have been reports that mid-March is being considered with a view toward expediting action to help the banking situation.

Only 10 inspectors are employed by the Ohio Public Utilities commission to enforce laws regulating 1,700 motor freight lines and 300 passenger bus lines.

Given Freedom

CHAS. BOETTCHER

Wealthy Denver broker, who was freed by his kidnapers last evening after payment of $60,000 ransom had been made. The young man was held by his abductors for seventeen days, during all of which time he was kept blindfolded. He was not otherwise mistreated, he said after his release.

SPEAKER TO BE
ACTING GOV. OF STATE FEW DAYS

During Absence Of Horner, Donovan
And Sen. Graham

Springfield, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Governor Henry Horner will leave Springfield this afternoon for Chicago en route to Washington to attend the inauguration of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Lieut. Gov. Thomas F. Donovan left yesterday afternoon for Washington. He plans to return to Springfield immediately after the inauguration while Governor Horner will remain for a conference of Governors with the new President, which is scheduled for next Monday.

Other state officers will make the trip to Washington, including State Treasurer John C. Martin and Attorney General Otto Kerner. Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes and State Auditor Edward J. Barrett probably will not make the trip.

In the absence of Lieutenant Governor Donovan and Senator Richy Graham, president pro tem, the Senate was presided over yesterday by Senator R. M. Shaw, Lawrenceville. Today the honor will pass to Senator Martin Lohman, Pekin.

Lieutenant Governor Donovan left for Washington to attend the Roosevelt inauguration and president pro tem Graham is in Miami during the critical illness of Mayor Cermak.

Speaker Arthur Roe of the House of Representatives will be Acting Governor in the absence of Governor Horner.

State Democrats
Go To Inaugural

Chicago, March 2—(AP)—Leaders in Illinois democracy headed by Governor Henry Horner announced today that two special trains would carry them to Washington to be on hand for President-elect Roosevelt's inauguration.

Plans for the trip were held in abeyance because of the critical condition of Mayor Anton J. Cermak of Chicago in Miami, Fla., but when word came through that the Mayor was on the gain it was announced that the trains would depart with a full quota of Democrats aboard tomorrow afternoon.

Besides Gov. Horner, Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes, State Treasurer John C. Martin and State Auditor Edward J. Barrett and possibly Lieut. Gov. Thomas F. Donovan said they would make the trip in addition to a number of city and Cook county officials.

HONORS REQUISITIONS

Springfield, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Governor Henry Horner today honored requisitions from the Governors of Missouri and Colorado for the return to those states of two men held in Illinois.

Curtis H. Carleton, wanted in Denver for non-support and child abandonment, will be returned from Chicago. Missouri asked for the return of Ed Wortman, alias Charles Flood, now held in St. Clair county, who is wanted for burglary in Franklin county, Mo.

The man-of-war hawks, or frigate birds, have wings with an extent of seven feet or more.

WOLF POPULATION REMAINS THE SAME IN MONTGOMERY CO. AFTER CONCERTED HUNT BY BIG POSSE

Litchfield, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Montgomery county's wolf population today was about the same as it was before the biggest hunt ever staged in this section.

Several hundred men—and a few women—yesterday beat the brush over an area of forty-nine square miles and when the hunt was over only one wolf had been killed. The hunters reported, however, that they saw four wolves.

EXPECT RAINEY TO BE ELECTED
SPEAKER TODAY

Deals During Day Will Give the Illinoisan Needed Support

Washington, March 2—(AP)—It looks as though before the day is out the name of Rainey of Illinois will be joined to the list of Speakers of the House of Representatives after Cannon, Clark, Gillett, Longworth and Garner.

Eventualities may change the prospect, but out of a swirl of developments at the Capitol today emerged indications that only a terrific upset would suffice to do so.

Supporters of Representative McDuffie of Alabama, party whip, would not concede; but Rainey's managers confidently predicted he would win on the first ballot at the party caucus in the late afternoon.

Managers for Representative Byrns of Tennessee, the third leading candidate, frankly stated that Byrns had withdrawn in support of Rainey and would make a speech in his behalf.

Tammany For Rainey
Representative Cullen of New York, leader, plainly indicated that his powerful Tammany delegation would support Rainey.

This strength, barring other developments, make Rainey's selection almost certain.

The caucus nominates the Democratic candidate for Speaker, and also chooses a floor leader. Republicans already have named Snell for Speaker; but in view of the preponderant majority for the other party success for the Democratic nominee is a foregone conclusion.

Rainey gained additional support when Cresser of Ohio withdrew from the Speakership race, and announced he would speak in the caucus for the Illinois member.

Drop Rep. Bankhead
Representative Arnold of Illinois, chairman of the caucus, said Byrns "will be a candidate for the leadership"—meaning that Representative Bankhead of Alabama, who was boosted by the Rainey supporters, was thrown overboard.

"There is no doubt in my mind," Bankhead said, "that a deal has been made."

Bankhead had not been a candidate for the leadership but was supporting McDuffie for Speaker.

Byrns declined to deny or affirm the reports of the combination with Rainey, but his campaign managers said the Tennesseean had thrown his support to the Illinois veteran.

It seemed that Byrns plans to appoint Cullen of New York as party whip, if he is elected leader.

Defeat For Garner

The swing indicates that the Rainey and Byrns groups, which have opposed Speaker Garner on many policies in the past twenty years, have finally defeated the Texans' followers.

McDuffie was understood to have the support of Garner, although the Vice President-elect has taken no active part in the campaign for his successor.

Garner becomes Vice President and presiding officer of the Senate Saturday.

The new Speaker will assume control of an overwhelming Democratic house and will have the responsibility of putting through President-elect Roosevelt's legislative program in a special session.

Indications are now that the special session, because of the economic conditions, will be called by Mr. Roosevelt within a few weeks instead of mid-April as original planned.

In addition, the Rainey-Byrns forces have agreed to seek to out South Trimble, Clerk of the House now, and elect Representative Nelson of Missouri, a "lame duck."

Fight May Result

Representative McDuffie told newspapermen "the fight is not over" and added that he would stay in the race.

"There is a lot of resentment among the membership over the deal," he said.

Several followers of Byrns said they would "not be delivered." This indicated that a terrific fight would be staged in the caucus.

A drive was instituted by friends of Bankhead to elect him floor leader, in an effort to block Byrns. This appeared to gain momentum as the parleying back and forth among groups proceeded.

The man-of-war hawks, or frigate birds, have wings with an extent of seven feet or more.

COUNCIL'S WORK-FOR-MEAL PLANS ARE CALLED OFF

Dixon Loyalty League
Opposed 'Dictation'
Of Kitchen Work

Officers of the Dixon Loyalty League voiced its opposition to the plan of working transients on the streets in the business district at a specially called meeting yesterday afternoon which Commissioner John Loftus was asked to attend as representative of the city council and at the close of the meeting it was announced that the present plan of feeding transients, which has proven very successful throughout the winter, will continue and that the proposed plan of working these men on the streets one hour each morning would not be started.

Loyalty League members expressed an opinion that forcing the transients to labor for their meals and ordering those who refused to work to leave the city would have a tendency to provoke petty thievery as well as encourage the practice of house-to-house begging, both of which have practically ceased through the present feeding plan.

The League officers felt that the purpose of the resolution adopted by the city council Tuesday evening to force transients to labor on the streets, was a humiliating undertaking.

"Attempted Dictation"
"The city council, which as a body has not contributed one cent toward the operation or maintenance of the Community Kitchen, now that the winter season is about closed, attempts to step forth in this resolution, which was declared adopted at Tuesday night's meeting, and dictate in what manner these unfortunate men are to be fed in Dixon," one member of the committee in charge of the Kitchen today.

"The present plan has been very successful and there has been no complaint registered about the working program. The committee believed that the plan to work transients on the streets one hour each morning is humiliating to these unfortunate men, not all of whom can be classified as tramps and hoboes, and opposed the resolution of dictation."

Members of the Dixon Loyalty League who sponsored the picture, "Last Tango" last evening at the Dixon theater were highly pleased by the returns. The benefit was very generously patronized and the fine sum was realized for the operation and maintenance of the Community Kitchen. Complete returns of the amount realized were not available today, but members of the committee indicated that the sum, coupled with the sums received weekly from the Bird House collection boxes, would be sufficient to continue the operation of the Kitchen for the remainder of the winter without necessitating any special drive for funds.

INVITE AMBOY SINGERS
The next rehearsal of the cantata "Ruth," which is to be produced here for the benefit of the Dixon Loyalty League's community kitchen, will be held at the Elks club next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Amboy singers who participated in the production of the cantata in that city are invited to assist in the Dixon production and attend the rehearsals here.

PICTURE A SUCCESS
Members of the Dixon Loyalty League who sponsored the picture, "Last Tango" last evening at the Dixon theater were highly pleased by the returns. The benefit was very generously patronized and the fine sum was realized for the operation and maintenance of the Community Kitchen. Complete returns of the amount realized were not available today, but members of the committee indicated that the sum, coupled with the sums received weekly from the Bird House collection boxes, would be sufficient to continue the operation of the Kitchen for the remainder of the winter without necessitating any special drive for funds.

ANOTHER BLOOD TRANSFUSION IS GIVEN TO CERMAK

Doctors Say Its Only Purpose Is To Add To His Strength

Miami, Fla., March 2—(AP)—A second blood transfusion was made today for Mayor Anton Cermak.

Hospital authorities said at 1 P. M., the transfusion then was in progress. A pint of blood was being pumped into Cermak's veins. An hour or more is required for a transfusion.

Blood for today's transfusion was given by Virgil Wright, utilities company employee.

To Add to Strength
Dr. Tice declared the transfusion was decided upon "just as a matter of giving him that much more strength" and not because of any sudden change for the worse in Cermak's condition.

The injection for the transfusion was made in the right arm at the elbow.

Dr. Tice said an additional glucose injection would be given later today.

Previously, the doctors said they considered further blood transfusion or glucose injections unnecessary if Cermak continued "his present condition." That was Monday.

A glucose injection was made last night, however.

HOLD LETTER WRITER
Chicago, March 2—(AP)—Ludwig Rahmer, 40, a chef, was held in a psychopathic hospital here for observation today after Secret Service operatives detained him as the person who wrote a letter in code to Giuseppe Zangara congratulating him for "good work" in the shooting of Mayor Anton Cermak at Miami.

Dr. V. G. Urse, resident physician at the hospital, said he believed the man was unbalanced mentally. Rahmer at the hospital insisted he did not know Zangara and knew nothing about the letter.

Rahmer was detained after the letter was intercepted at Miami. Authorities said it carried Rahmer's return address. They also insisted Rahmer admitted to them when first taken into custody that he knew Zangara but had not seen him for some time.

Wisconsin Repeal Convention Apr. 25
Madison, Wis., March 2—(AP)—A Wisconsin convention on ratification of the prohibition repeal amendment will be held April 25.

This was assured today when the Senate concurred unanimously in the Fox bill which the Assembly passed last night providing for the election of 15 delegates to the convention at the April 4 election.

Terse Items of News Gathered in Dixon During Day

CITY DARK A MINUTE

Dixon was without electric current last evening about 8:20 for 60 seconds. Ice blocked the generators at the hydro plant, tripping a switch and shutting off all electric power for one minute which was required to adjust the mechanism.

JOHN IVES PROMOTED

John Ives of Toledo, O., son of Dr. C. H. Ives of this city, has been made superintendent of the Laclede Christy plant at St. Louis, manufacturers of clay products. He was promoted from the assistant superintendent, a promotion of which his father is reasonably proud.

IN CHARGE OF CLINIC

Announcement was made at Springfield today that Dr. Charles C. Rowley, Health Officer at the Chester penitentiary, has been named to take charge of the clinic for the treatment of persons suffering the after-effects of sleeping sickness, which has been established by the Dixon state hospital.

ATTENDED HEARINGS

President W. F. Aydelotte, E. D. Countryman and R. A. Rodesch of the Lee County Taxpayers Association spent yesterday in Springfield with a large delegation of members of the state organization, attending hearings on the Searey and Gunning tax bills before the Senate. They also attended a hearing in the legislature at which time the proposed sales tax bill was discussed.

SAVE CITY COSTS

The Committee on Efficiency and Economy turned in an address report on the bill. The committee Chairman, James Burns of Kankakee, then moved that the House non-concur in his committee report. The House, however, sustained the committee instead of the chairman.

Opposition to the abolishment of City Courts was led by Representatives Collins, De Kalb, Bray, Litchfield, and Borders, East St. Louis.

Rep. Burns said that judges of many City Courts in Illinois had little work to do in their home cities and spent a large share of their time sitting in Chicago courts at $20 a day in addition to the salaries paid them as City Judges.

End Commission
The House passed a bill by Representative James Burn abolishing the Illinois Aeronautics Commission, which was established by the last General Assembly.

The duty of enforcing the state laws relative to aviation will, under the terms of the bill, be assigned to regular peace officers.

The commission is headed by Major Reed Landis of Chicago.

The last Assembly appropriated $40,000 for the commission for the biennium.

Today's action abolishing the commission was taken by a vote of 107 to 1. The bill now goes to (Continued On Page 2)

Two Women Picked
Up As Shoplifters

Two women given the names of Mrs. Lee Anna Poole and Miss Jeanette Enright and their home as Ohio, were taken in custody by the police last evening, following a report that shoplifters had been active in several places of business.

R. W. Keurt, manager of the Newberry store, reported to the police having trailed the women to a car where he discovered several wrapped articles, consisting largely of women's wear.

A total of 26 articles were recovered when the women were taken to the police station, which had been taken from five local stores. Charges of larceny were preferred before Police Magistrate A. E. Simonson in police court who fixed the women's bond at $1,000 each and they were permitted to return to their homes in Bureau county on their own recognizance.

The hearing having been continued until March 8, Chief Van Bibber today was returning the stolen articles to the various places of business. In one store the younger of the two women was said to have collected almost a complete outfit of women's clothing.

Today's Almanac:
March 2nd
1703—Sam Houston born in Virginia and decided to become President.
1529—Carl Schurz born.

1933—President Hoover reads joke about Congress. Laughs.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1933
By The Associated Press
Chicago and vicinity

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature, lowest tonight about 24 to 28; moderate northerly winds. Outlook for Saturday—Mostly cloudy, seasonable temperature.

Illinois—Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; slightly colder in extreme south portion tonight.

Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Friday; slightly colder in northeast portion tonight.

Iowa—Generally fair tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature.

Friday—Sun rises at 6:33 A. M.; sets at 5:52 P. M.

GOV. HORNER TO SIGN REPEALERS
WHEN RECEIVED

Promises Quick End To State Prohibition
Regulations

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 2—(AP)—State prohibition laws in Illinois were doomed to extinction today with the promise of Governor Henry Horner that he would immediately sign two repeal bills passed by the General Assembly.

The next to final action making liquor lawful was taken yesterday when the House by a vote of 120 to 25, passed the Senate bill to repeal the search and seizure act of 1919, and did the same with the prohibition law of 1921, the vote being 115 to 29.

However, federal prohibition still remained, but machinery was set up, as outlined last week by a joint legislative committee, to put the state either in the column of those upholding or rejecting the repeal of the 18th Amendment by Congress.

Plan Convention
A bill was introduced in the House providing for the election of a "wet pocket" state convention on June 5. If the bill passes, either a "wet" or "dry" convention of 25 members would be elected, candidates being required to state their stand beforehand.

The total vote for or against prohibition would determine which set of candidates was elected.

An effort to abolish all City Courts in Illinois and transfer their work to the Circuit Courts was defeated in the lower House today. The vote was 78 to 39.

Save City Costs
The Committee on Efficiency and Economy turned in an address report on the bill. The committee Chairman, James Burns of Kankakee, then moved that the House non-concur in his committee report. The House, however, sustained the committee instead of the chairman.

Opposition to the abolishment of City Courts was led by Representatives Collins, De Kalb, Bray, Litchfield, and Borders, East St. Louis.

Rep. Burns said that judges of many City Courts in Illinois had little work to do in their home cities and spent a large share of their time sitting in Chicago courts at $20 a day in addition to the salaries paid them as City Judges.

End Commission
The House passed a bill by Representative James Burn abolishing the Illinois Aeronautics Commission, which was established by the last General Assembly.

The duty of enforcing the state laws relative to aviation will, under the terms of the bill, be assigned to regular peace officers.

The commission is headed by Major Reed Landis of Chicago.

The last Assembly appropriated $40,000 for the commission for the biennium.

Today's action abolishing the commission was taken by a vote of 107 to 1. The bill now goes to (Continued On Page 2)

Two Women Picked
Up As Shoplifters

Two women given the names of Mrs. Lee Anna Poole and Miss Jeanette Enright and their home as Ohio, were taken in custody by the police last evening, following a report that shoplifters had been active in several places of business.

R. W. Keurt, manager of the Newberry store, reported to the police having trailed the women to a car where he discovered several wrapped articles, consisting largely of women's wear.

A total of 26 articles were recovered when the women were taken to the police station, which had been taken from five local stores. Charges of larceny were preferred before Police Magistrate A. E. Simonson in police court who fixed the women's bond at $1,000 each and they were permitted to return to their homes in Bureau county on their own recognizance.

The hearing having been continued until March 8, Chief Van Bibber today was returning the stolen articles to the various places of business. In one store the younger of the two women was said to have collected almost a complete outfit of women's clothing.

Today's Almanac:
March 2nd
1703—Sam Houston born in Virginia and decided to become President.
1529—Carl Schurz born.

1933—President Hoover reads joke about Congress. Laughs.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1933
By The Associated Press
Chicago and vicinity

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature, lowest tonight about 24 to 28; moderate northerly winds. Outlook for Saturday—Mostly cloudy, seasonable temperature.

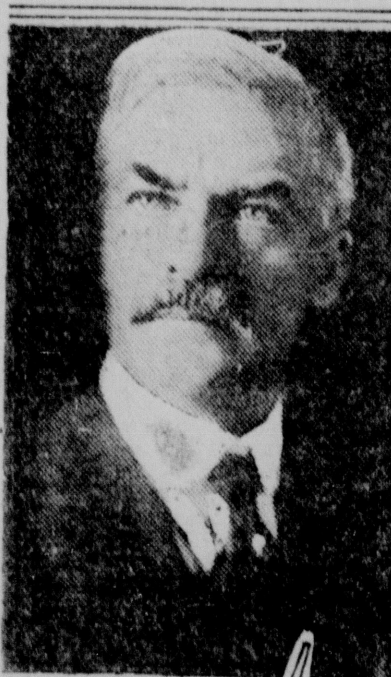

Illinois—Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; slightly colder in extreme south portion tonight.

Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Friday; slightly colder in northeast portion tonight.

Iowa—Generally fair tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature.

Friday—Sun rises at 6:33 A. M.; sets at 5:52 P. M.

Dies Suddenly

THOMAS J. WALSH

Veteran member of the United States Senate and Attorney General-designate in the Cabinet of President-elect Roosevelt, who died suddenly aboard an Atlantic Coast train in North Carolina early this morning, while returning to Washington with his bride, wealthy Chicago widow, to whom he was married only last Saturday in Havana.

ROOSEVELT GOES AHEAD WITH HIS INAUGURAL PLAN

Gives No Hint As To Naming Another
Atty. General

New York, March 2—(AP)—Sadened by the death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, President-elect Roosevelt went ahead today with his preparations to take over the presidency at noon Saturday.

He paused to express to newspapermen his personal loss in the death of the Montana Senator and the loss also to the nation of the Attorney General he had selected.

Turning again to the national problems confronting him, Mr. Roosevelt conferred briefly with William H. Woodin, his Secretary of the Treasury, who remained at the East 66th Street residence for about a half hour.

Keenly alive to the domestic business situation, Mr. Roosevelt gave no hint that he would take any part in it or make any statement before he assumes office Saturday afternoon.

Also, there were no indications whether he would appoint an Attorney-General to take the place of Senator Walsh before he submits names of the other cabinet officers to the Senate on Saturday afternoon.

Economy Program Has Been Mapped

Washington, March 2—(AP)—Speaker Garner today told newspapermen that advisors of President-elect Roosevelt had completed an economy program to shave from $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 of government costs.

The program was drafted by Representative Douglas of Arizona, President-elect Roosevelt's choice for Director of the Budget, and Swager Sherley, a close associate.

Garner said that, under the Treasury-Post Office Department supply bills provisions giving Mr. Roosevelt power to reorganize the government most of the economies could be effected by executive orders.

"If Congress gives Mr. Roosevelt authority to reduce salaries and cut veterans' compensation, between $700,000,000 and $850,000,000 will be saved and the country will approve it," Garner said.

Rubber Bathing Suits Given O. K.

Chicago, March 2—(AP)—Rubber bathing suits will be O. K. on Chicago beaches.

Walter W. Wright, Superintendent of Play

TODAY'S MARKET REPORTS

MARKETS
At A Glance

(By The Associated Press)

New York—Stocks heavy; leaders thinly supported. Bonds weak; U. S. governments lead decline. Curb heavy; oils and utilities weaken. Foreign exchanges firm; sterling strong. Cotton lower; Wall street and commission house selling. Sugar lower; Cuban selling. Coffee higher; European covering. Chicago—Wheat weak; banking uncertainties. Corn lower; big rural holdings. Cattle steady to strong; not much in beef run. Hogs mostly 10 higher, active.

Chicago Grain Table

(By The Associated Press)
	Open	High	Low	Close
WHEAT —
May	47 1/2	47 3/4	46 3/4	46 3/4
July	47 1/2	48 1/4	47	47 1/4
Sept.	48 1/2	49	48	48
CORN —
May	24 1/2	24 3/4	23 3/4	23 3/4
July	25 1/2	25 3/4	25 1/4	25 1/4
Sept.	27	27 1/4	26 3/4	26 3/4
OATS —
May	16 1/2	16 3/4	15 3/4	15 3/4
July	16 1/2	16 3/4	16 1/4	16 1/4
Sept.	17	17 1/4	16 3/4	16 3/4
RYE —
May	33 1/2	33 3/4	33 1/4	33 1/4
July	33 1/2	33 3/4	33 1/4	33 1/4
Sept.	—	—	—	—
BARLEY —
May	25 1/2	25 3/4	25 1/4	25 1/4
July	—	—	—	—
LARD —
May	3.90	3.92	3.90	3.92
July	4.00	4.07	4.00	4.07
BELLIES —
May	4.22	—	—	4.22
July	—	—	—	—

Chicago Cash Grain

Chicago, Mar. 2—(AP)—Wheat, no sales.

Corn No. 3 mixed 21 1/2 @ 21 3/4; No. 5 mixed 20 1/2; No. 2 yellow 23 1/4 @ 23 1/2; No. 2 yellow (old) 24; No. 3 yellow 2 1/2 @ 2 1/2; No. 4 yellow 21 1/2 @ 21 3/4; No. 5 yellow 21; No. 6 yellow 19 1/2 @ 20; No. 2 white 23; No. 3 white 21 1/2 @ 21 3/4; No. 5 white 21.

Oats No. 2 mixed 15 1/2; No. 3 white 16; No. 3 white 15 1/2 @ 15 3/4; No. 3 white (choice) 16 1/2.

Rye no sales.

Barley 24 @ 35.

Timothy seed 2.25 @ 2.50 per cwt.

Clover seed 5.50 @ 8.00 per cwt.

Chicago Produce

Chicago, Mar. 2—(AP)—Potatoes 66 on track 181, total U. S. shipments 894; dull, trading very slow; supplies moderate; sacked per cwt: Wisconsin round whites 70 @ 72 1/2; unclassified 62 1/2 @ 65; Michigan russet russets 70 @ 72 1/2; Idaho russets 1.12 @ 1.17 1/2; Colorado McClure's 1.25 @ 1.50.

Apples 1.50 @ 2.00 per bu; grapefruit 2.50 @ 4.00 per crate; lemons 3.50 @ 5.00 per box; oranges 2.00 @ 3.50 per case; strawberries 10 @ 11c per pint.

Butter 9143, weak; creamery—specials (93 score) 17 @ 17 1/2; extras (92) 16 1/2; extra firsts (90-91) 16 1/4; firsts (88-89) 16; seconds (68-67) 15 1/2; standards (90 centralized cartons) 17.

Eggs 12,751, steady, prices unchanged.

Coultry, live, 20 trucks, easy; hens 9 1/2 @ 10 1/2; leghorns, hens 8; colored springs 13 1/2; rock springs 15; roosters 8; turkeys 10 @ 15; ducks 11 @ 12; geese 8; broilers 16 @ 17; dressed turkeys, steady; prices unchanged.

Chicago Livestock

Chicago, Mar. 2—(AP)—Hogs 19,000, including 8000 direct; mostly 10 higher than yesterday on all classes: 170-240 lbs 3.60 @ 3.75; top 3.75; 250-290 lbs 3.50 @ 3.60; 300-350 lbs 3.40 @ 3.50; pigs 3.00 @ 3.40; most packing sows 3.00 @ 3.15; light light, good and choice 140-160 lbs 3.40 @ 3.65; light weight, 160-200 lbs 3.60 @ 3.75; medium weight 200-250 lbs 3.55 @ 3.75; heavy weight 250-350 lbs 3.35 @ 3.60; packing sows, medium and good, 275-550 lbs 2.75 @ 3.25; and good choice 100-130 lbs 3.00 @ 3.40.

Cattle 5000; calves 1500; all grades light steers and yearlings including heifer and mixed yearlings steady to strong; not much beef in run; well conditioned medium weight and weighty steers in demand; nothing strictly choice here; best yearlings and medium weights selling at 6.00 @ 6.25; largely 4.00 @ 6.00; market, other killing classes steady; light vealers selling 25 @ 50 lower at 4.50 @ 5.00; slaughter cattle and vealers: steers, good and choice 550-900 lbs 5.50 @ 7.50; 900-1100 lbs 5.50 @ 7.50; 1100-1200 lbs 5.00 @ 7.25; 1300-1500 lbs 4.50 @ 6.50; common and heifers 550-1300 lbs 3.50 @ 5.25; heifers, good and choice 550-750 lbs 4.75 @ 6.00; common and medium 3.25 @ 4.75; cows, good 2.50 @ 3.00; common and medium 2.25 @ 2.50; low cutter and cutter 1.50 @ 2.25; bulls (yearlings excluded), good (beef) 2.50 @ 3.25; cutter, common and medium 2.25 @ 2.75; vealers, good and choice 4.50 @ 6.25; medium 4.00 @ 4.50; cull and common 3.00 @ 4.00; stocker and feeder cattle: steers, good and choice 500-1050 lbs 4.50 @ 6.00; common and medium 2.75 @ 4.50.

Sheep 15,000; largely at standstill, few sales to outsiders and small killers around steady; packers bidding 25 lower on better grade lambs; one deck 80 lb strictly choice fed lambs

HENRY ABT
GROCERY AND MARKET
Phone 402 Free Delivery

We pay 12c for Fresh Eggs

Tender Beefsteak 17c

Fresh Country Eggs, 2 doz. 27c

Beef Steak, lb. 16c

Lamb or Veal Steak 7c

Fresh Ground Beef, 3 lbs. 25c

Liver or Hearts, lb. 5c

Buckwheat Pancake 4 lbs. 22c

Beiter's Bread, Ward's Cakes

Milk and Cream

Wall Street

(By The Associated Press)

Allegi 1 1/2

Am Can 52 1/2

A T & T 67 1/2

Anac 60 5/8

Atl Ref 13 1/2

Barns 3 1/4

Bendix 4 1/2

Beth Stl 11 1/4

Borden 20 1/2

Borg Warner 6 1/4

Can Pac 8 3/4

Case 33 1/2

Cerro de Pas 7

C & N W 3 1/2

Chrysler 8 3/4

Commonwealth So 1 1/2

Con Oil 5

Curtis Wr 1 1/4

Eastman Kod 53 1/2

Fox Film A 1 1/4

Freeport Tex 16 1/2

Gen Mot 10 1/2

Gold Dust 12 1/2

Kenn Cop 7 1/2

Kroger Groc 15 1/2

Mont Ward 9 1/2

N Y Cent 15 1/2

Packard 2

Para Pub 5 1/2

Penney 19 1/2

Radio 3 1/2

Sears Roe 13 1/2

Stand Oil N J 23

Studebaker 2 1/2

Tex Corp 11 1/2

Tex Pac Ld Tr 4 1/2

Un Car 21 1/2

Unit Corp 6

U S Stl 24 1/2

U. S. Govt. Bonds

(By The Associated Press)

1st 4 1/2 100 7

3 1/2 100 1

4th 4 1/2 100 24

Treas 4 1/2 104

Treas 4 1/2 100 3

Treas 3 1/2 98 31

Treas 3 1/2 94 14

Chicago Stocks

(By The Associated Press)

Borg Warner 6 1/4

Cities Service 2 1/2

Commonwealth Ed 6 1/2

Grisby Grunow 5 1/2

Mid West Oil 1 1/2

Marshall Field 4 1/2

Public Service 7 per cent pfd 75

Quaker Oats 63 1/2

Swift & Co 7 1/2

Swift Intl 13 1/2

Walgreen 12 1/2

Local Markets

DIXON MILK PRICE

From Mar. 1 until further notice the Borden Company will pay 95c per cwt. for milk testing four per cent butter fat, direct ratio.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to those who donated cars to the neighbors who did so much and to all who in every way helped us in our time of sorrow.

Frank Hobbs.

E. A. Biggart and Family.

FOOD SALE

By the Ladies of the Sugar Grove church, at The City Cleaners, Saturday, March 4th.

It is your duty to carry Accident Insurance. If you use an automobile you can protect your family to the amount of $1,000 for 1 year for $1.25.

Youth Held As Counterfeiter

Letter Heads or Bill Heads? B. F. Shaw Printing Co. 11

After wounding two policemen who attempted to arrest him for passing spurious money, Lester Lawrence Lillie, 25 (above), was arrested in Washington and confessed, police say, to manufacturing counterfeit bills. He led police to his counterfeiting apparatus. He is the son of a prominent Washington family.

Decorating
Paper Hanging Painting

PRICES REASONABLE

BERT BRITT

307 Grant Ave.

France's Leader

Facing a difficult problem is Edouard Daladier, new French premier, shown above just after he succeeded in forming a cabinet. His two predecessors were overthrown by the Socialists and Daladier's new cabinet is without Socialist support.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

James Phalen and son Peter, Mrs. Clarence Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burke were in Chicago Tuesday where they attended the funeral of a former Dixonite, William Valle.

—Keep posted as to what is going on in Lee and adjoining counties by reading the news which appears daily from our special correspondents in surrounding towns.

Mrs. Alma Weaver of Woodstock has moved here to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Hayden.

Walter Hummel of Route 2 Elgin has moved to Route 3 Polo.

George Rosbrook of Route 1 has moved to Ohio.

W. F. Fischer has moved to Route 3 Franklin Grove.

A. L. Wilson and Guy Robinson of Dixon; Myron Hall of Ashton; and Fred Pfeifer of Pearl City, returned home last evening after a motor trip to Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. C. E. Hill, who has been ill for two weeks with bronchitis, is reported improved today.

Ira Nehring of 1841 First street submitted to an operation at the Dixon public hospital this morning.

Chairman Gilbert Finch of the board of supervisors, of Amboy, was a Dixon caller today.

Supervisor L. D. Hemenway of Steward was a Dixon visitor this afternoon.

Highway Commissioner Paye Snow of Wyoming township was a Dixon caller this morning.

William Avery of May township is in Dixon this afternoon on business.

John Finn of Marion township is a visitor in Dixon today.

John Emmitt of Nelson township is a Dixon business caller this afternoon.

Walter Ortiguesen of South Dixon was a business visitor in Dixon today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sullivan motored to LaSalle today to attend an entertainment this evening given by Miss Emma O'Brien.

Housewives who appreciate real bargains should read every ad in the Telegraph today and Friday.

Hector Carson of Rochelle underwent a sinus operation at the Dixon hospital today.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Latta of Amboy, route 1, were business visitors in Dixon today and incidentally subscribed for the Telegraph.

Arthur Nelson of near Paw Paw was brought to the county jail from Ottawa last evening by Sheriff Fred Richardson, and was to be taken before Judge Leech in the county court this afternoon for a sanity hearing.

W. J. Smith has opened a new store in Amboy.

EYESTRAIN WITH KEEN VISION —WRECK—RACK AND RUIN
HEALTH, MOST WHEN LEAST EXPECTED.

Dr. Aydelotte, Neurologist.

311 1/2

ATTY. GENERAL DESIGNATE HAD A HEART ATTACK

(Continued From Page 1)

and arrives in Washington at 9:45 tonight.

According to present plans Mrs. Walsh will accompany the body to the national Capital, although she still was in a highly nervous state late in the morning.

Scores of citizens here called to pay their respects and offer sympathy and she received small groups as she felt able.

In a highly nervous and hysterical condition, Mrs. Walsh, a bride of less than a week, described today how her honeymoon was ended by the sudden death of Senator Walsh, while they were on their way to Washington where the Senator was to become Attorney General in the Roosevelt cabinet. Speaking in broken English with a pronounced Spanish accent, the Cuban woman haltingly reviewed her last few hours with her husband.

Tells Of Last Hours

"When we left Havana," she said, "the sun was shining and all was happy. In Miami and Palm Beach we were so happy. Then it rained in Daytona and all was against us there. We were so happy. Now he's gone."

"We were so happy," she repeated. "We arrived in Miami. We posed for many pictures and the Senator was happy. We went many places there and in Palm Beach."

"Yesterday—no day before yesterday, we left at 4:30—no it was 10:30 for Daytona. There we arrived at 4:30."

"In the afternoon we went to see the Senator's friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. Then we had dinner. We went to the large music room in the hotel to hear some girl play music and there we met a lady, a friend of the Senator."

"We sat in a big circle, we, the three of us, and talked."

"Suddenly the Senator cut, stopped quickly, the conversation. He stood up. 'Let's walk' he said. I said 'Senator, what's the matter?'"

"I have a pain here," he said. (Mrs. Walsh passed her hand over her abdomen).

GOV. HORNER TO
SIGN REPEALERS
WHEN RECEIVED

(Continued From Page 1)

the senate.

Senator R. M. Shaw, Democratic floor leader of Lawrenceville, today introduced a regulatory bill designed to control highway traffic in Illinois.

Shaw's bill slashes in two the gross weight of trucks and busses, reducing them from 40,000 pounds to 20,000 pounds; chops their length from 40 to 30 feet; sets their width at eight feet and their height a 11-12 feet.

Senator Shaw estimated that the vehicles against which his bill would apply make up less than 2 per cent of the vehicles using the hard roads in Illinois "yet they cause most of the highway damage because of their bulk and their high speeds." He requested early action on the bill and it was referred to the Highway committee for consideration.

The House passed a bill requiring applicants for relief in counties not under township organization and in Cook county to make a sworn statement of their condition and submit to an examiner by the Overseer of the Poor or County Bureau of Public Welfare. Penalties are provided for false statements or for failing to obtain relief or supplies that is required to maintain the applicant.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

Killed After Two Days Of Freedom

Decatur, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Bestus Maxey, released Tuesday from the Pontiac reformatory, was shot and fatally wounded Wednesday night by Elmer Pierson as he attempted to escape in Pierson's car after robbing his filling station or less than $5.

Maxey died in a Decatur hospital early today. Prior to the robbery of the Pierson station Maxey had looted the home of Thomas Bankson, Bluemound farmer. Firing at Bankson when surprised in the act of robbery, Maxey, whose home is in Carmi, was identified by a letter in his pocket.

Operation Of Huge Distillery Charged

Springfield, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Forty criminal informations filed in the Federal Court were announced today, including one charging Frank Mannen, alias Frank Meeni of violating the prohibition act by operation of a 40,000 gallon distillery five miles south of Ohlman.

Mannen also was charged with operating accessory equipment including four large concrete vats, a 500 gallon tank and 200 gallon tank.

TRIP ENDED SUDDENLY

Champaign, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Sixteen-year-old Howard Russell Clappen of Joliet started out on his bicycle Monday to see the world, and saw all there was to see from his home city to Champaign. Here the trip ended at the police station, where the officers held him for his father.

VOTE MORTGAGE BILL

Lincoln, Neb., Mar. 2—(AP)—The state Senate today passed Gov. C. W. Bryan's bill for a two year moratorium on mortgage foreclosures. The vote was 25 to 2. It has been passed by the House.

CLOSED LIPS

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

NEED JOB PRINTING?

If so visit our well equipped job plant. Estimates furnished.

B. F. Shaw Printing Co. Est. in 1851. Dixon, Ill.

Passport for Hollywood

Taking no chances of having her visit permission questioned, Elizabeth Allen, British film star, is shown—passport in hand—board for Hollywood where government inspectors have been checking up on the legality of residence of many alien film stars.

LONG QUESTION MARKS TRIAL OF PEKIN DEPUTIES

End Of "Third Degree" Murder Case May Come Today

Petersburg, Ill., Mar. 2—(AP)—Defense testimony in the trial of two Tazewell county Deputy Sheriffs for the manslaughter by third degree methods of Martin Virant, Pekin coal miner, drew to a close today, and closing arguments were promised either for late this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

Entering its tenth day, the defense had already presented the testimony of six East Peoria business men regarding the good reputation of C. O. Skinner, one of the deputies, and others were to follow for Ernest Fleming, indicted with him.

Among those who testified for Skinner were Chester Sward and Jap Davis, gasoline station operators, and Chester Arnold and Chas. Anthony, grocers.

Asked Long Question

Dr. P. M. Scott, a practicing physician of Petersburg, was the first witness today. He was asked one of the longest questions ever heard in Menard county. Unacquainted with the case, Dr. Scott was asked to assume conditions as witnesses testified them, and the time taken to outline the evidence, on which to base the assumption took almost an hour. At 10 o'clock the question was still in process of formulation.

Dr. Scott, according to defense counsel, was called to testify to the likelihood of Virant's death from shock, inasmuch as he ate a meal of bread, meat and potatoes an hour and a half before his body was found hanging in his cell.

After completion of the basis for the question, defense counsel asked Dr. Scott if the injuries on the body of Virant were sufficient to cause death. He answered "they were not" and too, after describing a pathological "shock" he was asked to say if Virant could have eaten a meal, while suffering from shock.

He answered "no" and then to the question if Virant had suffered "shock" he answered another "no."

Chronic Ills — Aydelotte.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

NEED JOB PRINTING?

If so visit our well equipped job plant. Estimates furnished.

B. F. Shaw Printing Co. Est. in 1851. Dixon, Ill.

Don't Trifle With Coughs

Don't let them get a strangle hold. Fight germ quickly. Creosolium combines the 7 best helps known to modern science. Powerful but harmless. Pleasant to take. No narcotics. Your druggist will refund your money if any cough or cold no matter how long standing is not relieved by Creosolium.

—Adv.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

Read each day Dr. Joseph Fort Newton's talk in the Telegraph.

Kline's

115-115 EAST FIRST ST.

New Styles in Women's Sportee

OXFORDS

Every pair with sport rubber soles and heels. Choice of Cuban and low heels.

All sizes to 8.

Wear them and have comfort in every step! New Moccasin, sport and walking styles with perforated trims. Choice of light and dark Elk and two tone combinations. You can't afford to go without a pair at only $2.00!

VOTE MORTGAGE BILL

Lincoln, Neb., Mar. 2—(AP)—The state Senate today passed Gov. C. W. Bryan's bill for a two year moratorium on mortgage foreclosures. The vote was 25 to 2. It has been passed by the House.

CLOSED LIPS

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

NEED JOB PRINTING?

If so visit our well equipped job plant. Estimates furnished.

VIOLENCE HAS BEEN RESUMED
IN MINE AREAS

While Joint Legislative Committee Is Seeking Peace

Springfield, Ill., March 2—(AP)—Acts of violence were reported from the Illinois coal mine districts as the joint legislative committee continued its hearings in an effort to effect a lasting peace.

As National Guardsmen remained on duty in Springfield and Sangamon county a bomb exploded in front of the home of a coal miner, John Werts, last night but no damage was caused.

A few hours before two men were injured when guardsmen ended a disturbance in a picket line at the Peerless mine and another man was arrested on charges of failing to clear the highway as ordered.

Richard Ames, 31, of Auburn, unemployed miner, explained a gunshot wound by declaring that a shotgun exploded as he was putting it into an automobile preparatory to going to the Woodside to call for a relative employed there.

Meanwhile, Illinois affairs of the United Miners of America were being directed by John L. Lewis, International President of the organization, and a staff he named to help him bring peace to the coal

The Social CALENDAR

Thursday
W. F. M. S.—Mrs. Fred Ball, 1005 Highland Avenue.
Woosung P. T. A.—Woosung school.
Ladies Aid—St. Paul's church.
Prairieville P. T. A.—Prairieville schoolhouse.
Nachusa Teachers Reading Circle—Miss Isabelle Wollaston, 321 College Ave.
E. L. C. E.—At Grace church.
St. Agnes Guild and Lenten Study Class—Guild Rooms.
E. R. B. S. S. Class—Mrs. Austin George, 519 Crawford Ave.
Ladies Aid—Immanuel Lutheran Church.
Women's Auxiliary to St. Luke's church—St. Luke's church.
Dorcas Society—Congregational church.
Missionary Society—Rev. and Mrs. Barnett, 317 W. Second street.

Friday
War Mothers—Am. Legion Hall.
Guest Day for Elks Ladies—Elks club.
Kingdom Missionary Society—Kingdom church.
Dorothy Chapter, O. E. S.—Masonic Temple.

Saturday
Palmyra Teachers Reading Circle—Mrs. Chas. Redeau, 310 Fifth street.
Past Matrons Club—Dinner at Masonic Temple at 1 o'clock.

Monday
O. E. S. Parlor Club—Masonic Temple.
Chapter AC, P. E. O.—Mrs. M. C. Keller, 603 Peoria Avenue.
Peoria Ave. Reading Club—Mrs. Alice Beede, 212 Ottawa Ave.

(Call Mrs. E. E. Holdridge at No. 5, for Society Items.)

HIGH TIDE
EDGED back against the night
The sea growled against the wave-broken shore,
And the breakers,
Like young and impatient boulders,
Sprang, with rough joy on the shrinking sand.

Spring—but were drawn back slowly,
With a long, relentless pull,
Whispering into the dark.

Then I saw who held them captive
And I say how they were bound
With a broad and quivering lease of light,
Held by the moon.
As, calm and unsmiling,
She walked the deep fields of the sky.

—From "Growing Pains" by Jean Starr Untermeyer.

Mrs. Harry Edwards Hostess to Phidian Art Club Tuesday

Mrs. Harry Edwards delightfully entertained the members of the Phidian Art Club at her home on Tuesday afternoon, and there were many present to greet the guest speaker, Miss Evelyn Merritt of the State Teachers College in DeKalb. Her topic was "Art As Found in Industry," and she reviewed in clear and interesting manner industrial art from olden times to modern, and showed the close relationship with the fine arts, saying that the great artist is often a craftsman, and the craftsman in turn is often a designer, and a true artist.

Invite Phidian Art Club to Amboy

Mrs. W. D. Hart, president of the Phidian Art Club announces today that the Amboy Woman's Club has invited the members of the Phidian Club to be guests of the Amboy Club on Monday afternoon, March 13th, in the Amboy Woman's Club rooms in the Library of that city. The president of the Federated Women's Clubs of Illinois, will be the speaker of the afternoon. No doubt there will be a large delegation from Dixon in attendance.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK.
Patronize Home Industry.

CHILDREN'S COLDS

CHECKED
2 WAYS at once without "dosing"

26/24
VICKS
VapoRub

OVER 42 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Tested RECIPES

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
GRAHAM CRACKER ROLL
A Menu for Breakfast

Stewed Prunes
Cooked Corn Cereal
Soft Cooked Eggs
Bran Gems
Coffee

A Menu for Lunch
Celery Soup
Fruit Cookies
Tea
A Menu for Dinner
Baked Fish
Escalloped Tomatoes Biscuits
Plum Jelly
Vegetable Salad
Graham Cracker Rolls
Whipped Cream
Coffee

Celery Soup, Serving 4
2-3 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped onions
2 tablespoons chopped pimientos
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 cups water
4 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
1-4 teaspoon paprika
Mix the celery, onions, pimientos salt and water. Cover, cook slowly 20 minutes. Mash well. Melt butter and add flour. When blended add milk, cook until creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add paprika and cooked celery mixture. Cook one minute. Serve.

Escalloped Tomatoes, Serving 4
3 cups tomatoes
1 cup diced toast
4 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons finely chopped onions
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1-4 teaspoon paprika
Mix ingredients and pour into buttered baking dish. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Serve in dish in which baked.
This is an excellent dish to serve for luncheon or supper. Half a cup of cheese may be sprinkled over the top. This will improve the flavor and add nutriment.

Graham Cracker Roll
2 cups rolled Graham crackers
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup diced marshmallows
1-2 cup nuts
1-3 cup sweet cream
Mix ingredients. Press into mold. Chill 4 hours or longer. Unmold. serve sliced. Top with whipped cream.
A pound baking powder can makes a good mold to hold this pudding.

Ill. League Women Voters for Constructive Economy Prog'm

At a meeting of the board of the Illinois League of Women Voters, action was taken for the endorsement of a group of bills in the legislature, which embody in their provisions many of the principles the League has been studying over a period of years, announces Mrs. Ralph B. Treadway of Glen Ellyn, President of the League.

In its program for constructive economy in government, Mrs. Treadway points out, the League believes that a method to be used is elimination of unnecessary governmental units. Therefore the list starts with endorsement of H. B. 296, one of the measures recommended by the Commission on Taxation and Expenditures, introduced jointly by Representatives Elmer J. Schnackenberg (R.) Chicago, M. P. Browner (R.) Mound City, Michael P. Henneberry (D.) Wilmington, which provides that the question of abandoning township organization may be submitted to voters upon petition of one hundred instead of one-fifth of the legal voters of the county, thus making it easier to do away with townships when voters so desire. H. B. 286, introduced by Representatives Schnackenberg, Browner and Henneberry, and a similar bill, H. B. 222, introduced by Rep. James T. Burn (D.) Kankakee, abolish the office of county surveyor, providing that the records be transferred to the county recorder and has been endorsed by the League; as has H. B. 34, put in by Mr. Burns, abolishing the office of assistant supervisor.

Revision of tax machinery as one of the steps toward greater economy and efficiency as a plank in the League's platform, and has resulted in endorsement of the following: S. B. 258 and 259, recommended by the Taxation and Expenditures Commission, introduced by Senator Martin Carlson, (R.) Moline, and Senator Adelbert H. Roberts (R.) Chicago, abolishing township assessors, and providing that the county assessor or board of assessors, as the case may be, shall have the powers and perform the duties of township assessors. S. B. 257, also introduced by Senators Carlson and Roberts, abolishing township collectors in counties over 100,000 in population. H. B. 24, introduced by Rep. James T. Burns, Kankakee, providing for county assessors, and specifying that township assessors shall have no duties in connection with the assessment of property. H. B. 29, put in by Mr. Burns, abolishing township treasurers and providing that the county treasurer shall be ex-officio township treasurer. H. B. 87, introduced by Rep. Robert J. Woodward (R.) Chicago, decreasing the membership of various commissions, though the League considers the scope of its program limits its endorsement to the reduction of the Tax Commission from five to three, as this is the only one of the commissions of which it has made a study.

Another way to carry out a program of constructive economy in government, the League believes, is through the extension of the merit system to eliminate the waste of "spoils system." For this reason, it has voted to oppose H. B. 61, introduced by Rep. Sol Hardy of Marshall, to repeal the State Civil Service Act.

Something for all To Ponder Over

What price civilization? Sometimes I think it comes pretty high—too high.
The Eskimos are a happy and honest people—explorers love to relate stories of their trust of each other and lack of jealousy. Their children are seldom if ever reprovoked and as a result are a merry little people indeed.

Savages, what we know of them, allow their small Toppies to grow up, pursuing almost the same methods as the Eskimos whom they never heard of. Savage children, we are informed, live a happy, carefree life "free from chiding." I read recently of a certain half civilized island in the Pacific that had stubbornly shut out the steamships and any encroachment of modern life, going about its own business and continuing in the happy contentment that had colored its drowsy life for a thousand years. Eventually the world poked in. White men bought up broad acres and altruists started schools for the children.

And for the first time the large rattan thickets furnished more than shade. The mothers, succumbing more quickly than the men to the influence of modern tactics, proceeded to whip their children upon and and every occasion and fought with each other.

Now the answer is, who wants to be an Eskimo, or a Zulu, or a Bolander?

Their behavior to sudden civilization reminds us of something, does it not? The behavior of happy, care-free children, to suddenly loaded with the demands of our social world as we like to call it.

I think that "conditioning" or a rational preparation of the child for life, should be begun very early. But I also believe there can be too much of it. Does that account for the short tempers of so many little children today? Intended by Illustration: TONY for NPA Service Inc. All rights and some rights reserved.

W.R.C. Honors Washington's Birthday in a Program and Tea

Dixon Woman's Relief Corps, Auxiliary to the G. A. R., met in regular session, Monday afternoon with a good attendance. The committee reports were all very gratifying and showed much work was accomplished. Mrs. Maria Slack, president, chairman of relief sent 55 pounds of carpet rags to the World War Hospital at Elgin. Among the communications read by the secretary, was a letter from A. H. Lancaster, school superintendent, thanking the Corps for their contribution in furnishing butter, cookies and jelly to school children. This concluded the business session. Mrs. Maudie Jones, president of the Co-op, announced a Washington Tea and program, the first number, being a sweet vocal solo by Enid Harris, "Forgotten." She graciously responded to an encore. A cornet solo by Fern Krahler, was next enjoyed. She very appropriately played "Columbia" and also gave an encore number. Elmer Rice, sang the beautiful "Because," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Rice. Several spirituals were given

Want to Be Lovely? Watch Your Step

Be sure that you are taking your steps in the right direction when you join the spring beauty parade. If your shoes don't fit, and you go hobbling along in the procession, your mouth will droop, no matter how beguiling your lips started out to be; your eyes will have a weary look; and your forehead will encourage frown-lines. Watch your step if you want to be lovely! First of all, choose shoes that really fit your feet. Do not buy them because you like the style. There are plenty of attractive models that will please you and feel good at the same time. Feet have an annoying habit of swelling in the spring. You must have room enough to stretch your toes without being hampered. Buy your shoes either a size larger than you usually do, a width wider or both, to insure comfort.

Heels, too, are important. Lovely, fragile, splinter ones are gay and glamorous for evening. If you want a party shoe so intriguing that it suggests a champagne toast elevate your ankle, by all means.

Walking shoes, though, should never have unstable heels. Sturdy heels, which act as a support instead of a hindrance when you have long distances or short distances to go, are essential. It isn't necessary to wear flat heels. Often they cause arches to break down. Choose heels providing comfort.

Arches need support. A shoe that loosens its grasp at the arch doesn't deserve parking space in your wardrobe. Whether you are standing or walking, make sure that your weight rests on the ball of your feet. When it does, your body will form a line, long and poised and graceful. Your stomach will be much more likely to keep its place than it will be if you stand awkwardly.

If you have a tendency to place your weight on your heels when you walk, one or two suggestions might help you. Pretend that your shoes have received new tips. You may not be able to obtain any more for months. Then walk as though you are being careful not to produce a lopsided, run-over appearance. Weight, automatically will fall on the balls of your feet.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

Kline's FULL FASHIONED

HOSE
* Sheer Chiffon or Service Silk
49¢

Perfect quality, clear Chiffon and Service weight hose... They look better, wear better and are better than most hose at this price! New colors.

HOSE
* Sheer Chiffon or Service Silk
49¢

by the Swain quartet and were much enjoyed, as was the violin solo by Jewel Auman accompanied by Mrs. Auman. She played "Berceuse" by Goddard, and responded with "Polish Dance" by Firnhans. Wanda Walder, gave a song and dance "Shine on Harvest Moon" which was a delightful termination to this well arranged program.

Tea was then served from a prettily appointed table, the center piece being a cluster of cherry blossoms, and pink tapers. Mesdames Nellie Eastman and Eva Richardson, dressed in colonial costumes served, and a social time was enjoyed by all present, and another George Washington anniversary had been honored.

Play "Go Slow Mary" Was Unqualified Success; Well Attended

The play "Go Slow, Mary," which was presented by a local cast in the Walton hall on Sunday evening proved one of unusual entertainment for a capacity crowd.

The happenings in the none too smoothly working household of the William Abby's was the plot of the play.

Mrs. Mary Abby, a young business woman who "despised housework," portrayed by Alice Gurgerty, showed ability much above the average.

She was ably supported by Thomas Asker in the role of Mr. Billy Abby. His attempts to prove to Mary that "system" was the oil which makes housekeeping machine run smoothly created side splitting episodes.

Katie, the dumb and always tired maid of the Abby's who quit because she did not like a "man-woman" for a boss was ably done by Catherine Gatchel.

Sally Carter, the friend who warned "Go Slow, Mary," and while trying to patch up the differences of the Abby's almost caused a tragedy was beautifully played by Viola Dempsey.

The inevitable and unwelcome mother-in-law who vociferously objected to Billy's statement that she was a "meddlesome old hen" was splendidly done by Florence Sweeney. She and "the angels," her grandchildren Dolly and Bobby were an important and amusing group.

Margaret Conroy as Dolly and Edward Powers as Bobby were all that anyone could wish in the way of mischievous yet lovable children. Bernard McGafferty as Burt Childs, dignified English friend of Billy's, an almost confirmed bachelor who looked at Billy's ludicrous attempts at housekeeping through amused and monocled eyes, performed with the drawl and technique of a finished English actor.

Jim Sweeney as the big Irish cop on the beat who would certainly have caught the robber if it hadn't been for the interference of "the angels" was so well done as to all most procure him a place with the secret six.

Danny, the rough neck ice man who claimed Katie as his "girl" and who used forcible tactics to inform Billy he wouldn't be called names, was one of the high lights of the performance. Everett Gurgerty played the part like a professional.

The part of Harry Stevens, impatient and unannounced husband of Sally, mistaken for the robber and treated rather roughly by the "officer of the law" was capably done by Clarence Henry.

The special numbers between acts by Bill Gurgerty and Mrs. Healy, Miss Arvilla Dempsey and Harold Higsby were so well received that all were requested for encores to which they very graciously responded.

Palmyra Mutual Aid Enjoyed a Mid-winter Picnic

The Palmyra Mutual Aid Society held its annual mid-winter picnic Saturday, Feb. 25th, in the basement of the Sugar Grove church.

About sixty people gathered there bringing full laden picnic baskets. At noon a bounteous and appetizing dinner was done justice to by all.

After dinner a social time was spent discussing the current topics of the day until it was time to depart.

Many members always manage to attend the mid-winter picnic, which find it inconvenient to attend regular meetings.

The next meeting, place will be announced later as there is no place to hold the next meeting. Anyone wishing to entertain the society please confer with the president, Mrs. Ruby Mensch.

MISS CARSON WITNESSED FAMOUS RACER MAKE RECORD

Friends in Dixon have received cards from Miss Anna L. Carson of Dixon who is spending the winter at Daytona Beach, Fla., informing them that she is enjoying Florida very much and that she saw Sir Malcolm Campbell make a speed record at Daytona Beach. This is a new record for him to make, 272 miles per hour, and his former world's auto record in 1932 was 253.969 miles, per hour. Miss Carson says they waited in the sand dunes for three hours for him and when he whizzed past, it was like explosion of a great gun.

SAFE PLAY SPACE FOR THE TODDLER

The toddler needs space both indoors and out where he may play freely without the possibility of getting into trouble. A gate can be let into the doorway of his nursery, so that he can see mother in the next room, talk with her and not feel himself too much alone.

Lois Jane Earll Bride Manuel Burke

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Grand Detour announce the marriage of their only granddaughter, Lois Jane, to Manny Burke, a soldier at Fort Lewis, Washington, which took place Dec. 19th at Olympia, Washington, the ceremony being solemnized by a Presbyterian minister. The bride and bridegroom were unattended. The bride was gown in a lovely frock of canton green crepe and a large picture hat. Her accessories matched her costume. The many friends of the attractive young bride, in Dixon and vicinity, wish the couple every happiness. Mrs. Burke graduated with the 1932 class of the Dixon High School.

O. E. S. PARLOR CLUB TO MEET MONDAY

The O. E. S. Parlor Club will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. George Horton is chairman of the committee, which is composed of Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, Mrs. Howard Beam, Mrs. Lund and Mrs. E. J. Brown.

PEORIA AVENUE READING CLUB MEETS MONDAY

The Peoria Avenue Reading Club will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Beede, 212 Ottawa avenue.

LADIES OF SUGAR GROVE CHURCH TO HOLD SALE

The ladies of the Sugar Grove church will hold a bake sale at the City Cleaners, Saturday, March 4th.

Additional Society Page 2

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK.
Patronize Home Industry.

QUIVERING NERVES

When you are just on edge... when you can't stand the children's noise... when everything you do is a burden... when you are irritable and blue... try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of 100 women report benefit.

It will give you just the extra energy you need. Life will seem worth living again.

Don't endure another day without the help this medicine can give. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Kline's
113-115 EAST FIRST ST.

More Shipments of Brand New

SPRING DRESSES

$3.99

You'll love their flattering cape effects, separate jackets and short puff sleeves... their feminine lingerie trims... their gay colors. Choice of attractive Prints, Rough Crepes, Acetate fabrics and Sand Crepes. Sizes 14 to 20—38 to 52—16 1/2 to 26 1/2.

New Spring POLOS

Dashing new Polo styles with tricky puff sleeves and high necks. Every one silk lined! In Dawn Blue, Navy and Grey. Sizes 14 to 20. All prices to suit every purse!

Kline's
FULL FASHIONED

HOSE
* Sheer Chiffon or Service Silk
49¢

Perfect quality, clear Chiffon and Service weight hose... They look better, wear better and are better than most hose at this price! New colors.

$5.95 to $9.95

Fogmist
Deausan
Hula
Sunglam
Suntouch

These 5 Shades are Smartest to Wear
With Your New Spring Clothes

WARD'S "GOLDEN CREST"

HOSIERY

$69

2 Pairs for $1.35

- Ward's Golden Crests are comparable to hose selling at much more!
- They're of clear, fashionably dull silk with picot tops!
- They're full fashioned with reinforced heel, toe and shaped cradle foot!
- They come in service, semi-chiffon and chiffon sheer!
- They are all silk from top to toe!

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
80 Galena Ave. DIXON, ILL.

DO NOT MAKE THE MISTAKE of buying, cheap, unbranded, unknown hosiery with no standards of quality to maintain.

BUY Humming Bird AND FULL FASHIONED HOSIERY

be assured of the ultimate in style and service at prices you can afford to pay.

A. L. Geisenheimer & Co.

Dixon Evening Telegraph

ESTABLISHED 1851

Published by
The B. F. Shaw Printing Company, at 124 East First Street, Dixon, Illinois Daily, Except Sunday.

Successor to Dixon Daily Sun, established 1868.
Dixon Daily Star, established 1889.
Dixon Daily Leader, established 1908.

Entered at the postoffice in the City of Dixon, Illinois for transmission through the mails as second-class mail matter.

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulation

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
With Full Leased Wire Service

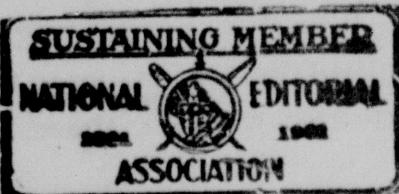

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it, or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

In Dixon by carrier 20 cents per week or $10 per year, payable strictly in advance.
By mail outside Lee and adjoining counties—Per year, $7.00; six months, $3.75; three months, $2.00; one month, 75 cents.
By mail in Lee and adjoining counties—Per year, $4.00; six months, $2.25; three months, $1.50; one month 75 cents; payable strictly in advance.
Single copies—5 cents.

THE TELEGRAPH'S PROGRAM FOR A GREATER DIXON

Increase Dixon's Population 1,000 each year.
Connect Dixon with the Inland Waterway System.
Pass a City Zoning Law.
Enlarge Dixon's City Limits.
Abolish the Smoke Nuisance.
Repave and Widen Streets in Business District.
Build a Municipal Bathing Pool.
Advertise the Beautiful Rock River Valley.
Develop Dixon as an Industrial and Trading Center.

PARENTHOOD AND DELINQUENCY.

Grand jury reports on crime conditions are commonly as thick as falling leaves in autumn, and most of them are as soon forgotten. But once in a while one is presented which expresses a lot of good sense.

Thus a grand jury at Houston, Tex., not long ago turned in a report upon delinquency among Houston's juveniles and made a point which is well worth remembering. "We have found," said the jury's report, "that the fathers and mothers of many juvenile delinquents had no knowledge of their children's whereabouts, the percentage running from 60 to 79 per cent. This indicates a breakdown of parental authority and should serve as immediate warning to the parents of this country."

Back of almost every adult criminal there stands the shadowy figure of a juvenile delinquent, lost somewhere in the unredeemable past. And back of almost every juvenile delinquent we can find, if we look hard enough, a careless and thoughtless set of parents.

That is self-evident, of course. But it is something we often forget, and if we could bear it in mind we might produce some straighter thinking about our crime problems.

It is easy enough to say that the job of bringing children up to be good citizens depends, in the last analysis, upon the parents. But that doesn't entirely cover it.

It doesn't simply mean that a child must have what we call a "good home"—plenty to eat, a fair chance at healthy recreation, honest and industrious parents, a measure of economic security.

Beyond those things, a child needs a father and mother who recognize their responsibility for him. They must know where he goes for his play, with whom he plays, what channels his restless young mind is exploring. They must be willing to take the time and energy to guide him.

The parent who fails in this respect has small reason to beat his breast and bewail the harshness of fate if his child gets into trouble.

SAFETY ON THE RAILS.

The last few years have not been banner ones for American railroads. But although times have been hard, it is worth noticing that in one field, at least, they have made an extremely fine record. They have reduced the hazard of fatal accidents to their passengers in a very striking manner.

A fair example is the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific. It has finished another year's operation without a fatal injury to a passenger, and can now point with pride to the fact that in the last 15 years it has carried more than 154,000,000 passengers over 11,000 miles of railroad with only one fatal accident.

When you stop to think of the extreme complexity of the operations of a big railroad, and of the vast number of things that can go wrong, you realize just what an achievement a record of this kind is.

GOING THE WHOLE WAY.

International agreements to abolish war still occupy the minds of the world's diplomats. At Geneva the other day Maxim M. Litvinov, foreign commissar for Soviet Russia, asked universal agreement to a plan by which all war would be outlawed. Signatory nations would agree not only to discard all "offensive wars," but would pledge themselves not to go to war even in self-defense.

That such a treaty could get accepted by the great powers is probably very doubtful. Yet the events of the last few years seem to indicate that no anti-war treaty will do much good if it does not carry provisions equally strict. We have solemnly outlawed all offensive wars, only to discover that all wars nowadays are defensive. Unless we are ready to outlaw defensive warfare as well, our treaties aren't apt to do much good.

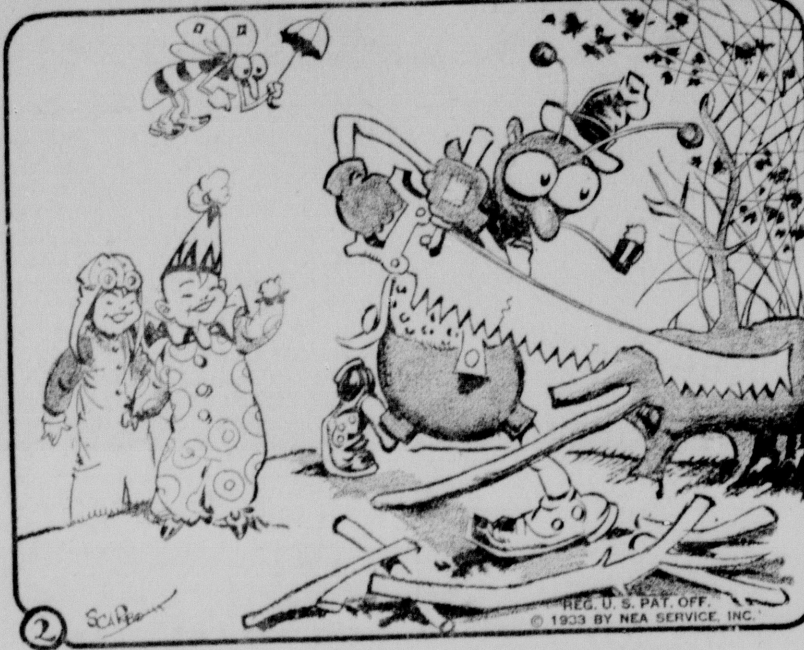

CHILD LABOR HANGS FIRE.

A few months ago we were engrossed by the prospective passage of the lame duck amendment. Now we are wrapped up in the prospective repeal of the prohibition amendment. Meanwhile, we might remember that there is still a chance of passing yet another amendment to the Constitution—the one which would give Congress the power to prohibit or regulate child labor.

This amendment was submitted some years ago, and failed of ratification in 26 states. But no time limit was put on it, and the courts have ruled that a state can change its position on the amendment. The Oregon legislature just the other day became the seventh state to ratify it; and it would be worth our while to consider the whole question anew and see if this might not be a very good amendment to add to our Constitution.

Back of every case of overprotection, babying, oversolicitude, too much mothering, overindulgence, there is a certain amount of rejection—a desire of the mother to be rid of the child.—Dr. David Levy, chief psychiatrist of the Institute of Child Guidance.

Japan has been and will always be the mainstay of peace, order and progress in the Far East.—Yosuke Matsumoto, chief delegate to the League of Nations assembly.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Through great, big trees the Tintinamites walked. For quite a time nobody talked. Then Scouty said, "I'm frightened, lads. Where can poor Duncy be?" "He fell asleep to sleep till dawn. Then, suddenly, the lad was gone. Just why he left our daisy tent's a mystery to me."

"All we can do is move along. If our direction is not wrong, we're sure to find him, shortly," answered Windy, with a frown.

"I understand why you're upset, but we can't give up all hope, yet. If he is hiding in a tree, I hope he topples down."

Just then the sun rose over a hill, which gave the Tintinamites a thrill. "You lightning bugs can go now," Scouty said. "We'll be all right."

And so the bright bugs flew away. Said Copy, "Gee, I'm glad it's day. Once more I'll call for Duncy. There's a chance that he might hear."

This time wee Duncy heard his name and right up to the bunch he came. "Where have you been?" snapped Windy. "Why, you filled us all with fear."

"Don't fret," said Duncy. "I'm all right. You see, I woke up in the night and heard a funny sound. I wondered what it was."

And then I jumped up from the ground, deciding I would look around. It didn't take me long to find out what produced the buzz."

"A little locust you can see, and he's a busy as can be. He's saving little twigs up and he never stops to rest."

"I asked him what the twigs were for and, as he saved a whole lot more, he said that he was making them for Mrs. Robin's nest."

(Scouty helps Mrs. Robin with her nest, in the next story.)

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS GIVING LIFE, HEALTH

Text: Mark: 5:21-24
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for March 5.

BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D.

Editor of The Congregationalist

The topic of this lesson as defined for young people and adults is "Christianity and Human Suffering." Throughout the ages, especially in the Christian era, humanitarianism has become expressed in so many organizations, and in so many forms, that we are apt to forget how essentially Christianity, through the example and teaching of Jesus, has brought into the world a new attitude toward human suffering and need.

Even today, despite the fact that our so-called Christian nations have been so little touched with the reality and power of the Christian spirit, one sees in the temper of Christian nations, as compared with pagan nations, a great difference in attitude. Nor does the fact that there is so much of pagan indifference among Christian nations alter the fact of the contrast.

Every glimpse of Jesus that we have in his earthly ministry shows him concerned not only for the souls of men and women, but also for their bodily health and welfare. He was the great physician as well as the powerful savior—the man of sorrows and of compassions as well as the man of righteousness and truth.

Here in our lesson we have the beautiful story of the restoration to life of the daughter of Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue, who had evidently been attracted to the teaching of Jesus, and who had faith in his wonder-working power. We are dealing in the lesson with a miracle, the nature and reality of which it is useless for us to seek to explore or explain.

The exact and critical scientist might inquire whether the daughter of Jairus were really dead, or whether she were in a state of coma, but all such questions have little relationship to the essential place of our lesson in the Gospel record.

The sympathetic student might ask whether the stories of miraculous healing in the New Testament are to be thought of in the same way as the stories of miraculous healing today. Whatever may be the answer, it is worth pointing out that in neither case is there agreement among sympathetic students of the miraculous.

Those who scorn to believe in anything that falls outside of the operation of the laws that they know are little better than those who superstitiously accept every story of miraculous healing. There are laws of the operation of mind and spirit over matter, the nature of which we have not yet begun to explore; and much in our modern world that is happening in accordance with laws, the nature of which we have now discovered, would in a former age have been considered miraculous.

What we must avoid, as we read of the wonderful life and works of Jesus, is belief in his spiritual power because of his power to perform miracles. That is to put the effect before the cause.

It was the spiritual power, and the sublime goodness of Jesus, that explained his influence over men, and his power to heal and bless. Jesus made it plain that though he wept with those who wept, and brought health to the afflicted, his real mission was to bring new life to dead souls, and to bring the joy of salvation to troubled and saddened hearts. He is the wonder-worker, because he is the life-giver.

Would you not like a box of Seal-o. It is the best foot powder on the market.

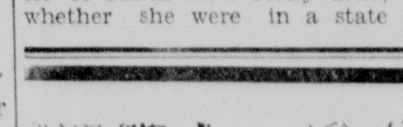

Fix up YOUR ROOF

For Temporary Protection Ward's Lowest Priced ROOFING

75c Per Roll

Our most popular sink—and no wonder. It's roomy—a 20x20 basin and a 20x22 drain-board. It's cast in one piece from heavy cast-iron, fully porcelain enameled. There is no higher grade.

One roll of this light weight temporary service roofing will cover 100 square feet—easy to lay—comes with nails and asphalt. Good grade felt saturated and coated with asphalt.

Porcelain-enameled SINK $13.25

For Temporary Protection Ward's Lowest Priced ROOFING

75c Per Roll

Our most popular sink—and no wonder. It's roomy—a 20x20 basin and a 20x22 drain-board. It's cast in one piece from heavy cast-iron, fully porcelain enameled. There is no higher grade.

One roll of this light weight temporary service roofing will cover 100 square feet—easy to lay—comes with nails and asphalt. Good grade felt saturated and coated with asphalt.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO. DIXON, ILL.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO. DIXON, ILL.

Income Taxes Explained By Commissioner

DEDUCTION FOR INTEREST.
Amounts paid or accrued within the taxable year 1932 as interest on indebtedness are deductible, with certain exceptions, from gross income in determining net income. Such items include interest on borrowed money to defray personal expenses, and on money borrowed for the purchase of real or personal property. If a person owes money on a lien or mortgage note on his home, the amount of the interest, however, need not be evidenced by lien, judgment, or mortgage to make the interest on it deductible. Frequently indebtedness is evidenced only by a note.

Interest paid on indebtedness incurred in the purchase of obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from Federal income tax, or on indebtedness incurred in connection with the purchase or carrying of an annuity, is not deductible. Interest paid on loans on life insurance policies is deductible provided the amount of the loan is not used for the purposes previously referred to in this paragraph.

Interest paid on behalf of a friend or relative where there is no legal obligation on the part of the payor is not deductible. In such cases the amount is the same as a gift.

As interest paid is deductible, so interest received is taxable. All such amounts, including interest received on bank and savings deposits, must be included in the taxpayer's return of gross income.

TEMPERANCE HILL

By Mrs. W. J. Leake

Temperance Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slaybaugh were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. Slaybaugh's grandmother, Mrs. E. Hoff of Nachusa.

Mrs. Clarence Martz of Lee Center spent Wednesday with Estella Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Degner and family moved Tuesday to the Finch farm near Amboy, Theodore Henricks moving on the farm vacated by the Degners.

Mrs. Claude Frye of Amboy visited Sunday and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Hillison.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Miller and family moved Thursday from the Seggerman farm to the farm of Mrs. Catherine Killmer, Otto Krieger and family moving on the Seggerman farm.

Bobby Degner is spending several days visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Valle, of Dixon.

Estella Clayton was a dinner guest at the Harry Clayton home near West Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dewey and baby of Lee Center were dinner and supper guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Dewey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David North.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunbar and family were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Florence Dunbar of Dixon.

Winslow Smith of Amboy spent the week end with Morris and Rodney Buchman.

Kirk Thurston moved from the

CINE-MODES SIMPLE LUXURY

Benita Hume

By NEA Service

Hollywood—if you can "glid the lily" and still keep your evening things simple looking, it is all to the good.

Benita Hume wears a perfectly exquisite white lace evening gown, all delicately scintillating because its fine design is traced in tiny crystal beads. It is made with a very low back, cowl front, floor length and a slight train, for formality's sake.

She wears pearls with a diamond clasp and one diamond bracelet with it and looks simply elegant!

Claudette Colbert, among her new New York clothes, has a glamorous black marquisette dinner gown with the puff sleeves and the round necked yoke embroidered in glittering jet.

Marlene in a Dress Holding open house on Sunday

Burkett farm to the Spangler farm.

Mrs. Russell Shaw of Wicanda, Kansas, was a dinner guest Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Mynard.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy June were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Mrs. June's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinboth of Amboy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roesler and family of Ottawa were supper guests Sunday night at the Kyle Miller home.

Mrs. Robert Elise of Dixon visited Thursday evening with Mrs. F. H. Mynard.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swanson, and three sons, Robert, Jr., Paddy and Russell of Sandwich, were entertained at dinner and supper afternoon, Adrienne Ames wore a brown velvet afternoon dress with full sleeves with bands of rhinestones on them. Incidentally, Marlene Dietrich was there, with Maurice Chevalier, and she was wearing a DRESS. It was black crepe, with extremely full sleeves and full skirt. She wore her black hat anchored to the back of her head with a black ribbon under her chin, holding it in place.

Ermine is used to give glamour to many a costume of an evening. I saw Kathleen Burke, dancing with her fiance, Glen Rardin, in the Roosevelt Blossom Room, wearing a stunning black velvet dinner gown with puff sleeves and a jabot of ermine tabs.

At the Biltmore Theater, Fay Wray wore a charming pale pink chiffon gown, with dainty flowers imprinted on it, outlined in beads.

Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David North.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.—Psalms 9:10.

Make not Christ a liar in distrusting His promise.—Rutherford.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

4816

4816

Daily Health Talk

COLD OR FLU?
When is a cold an attack of the flu?

This distinction is important, because the ordinary cold is a relatively mild condition, while flu or influenza is more serious.

At the present time we know little about the specific cause or causes of either. In both we suspect filterable viruses. Clinically, we know that both colds and flu are infectious and communicable.

However, colds do not spread as rapidly as influenza, which is characterized by the large number of people attacked.

An epidemic of influenza may appear at practically any season of the year, except perhaps during the months of greatest sunlight.

Influenza has what is called an abrupt onset. The patient becomes suddenly ill. The disease most commonly affects the respiratory tract, but there are other forms of influenza, notably the nervous form, the gastro-intestinal form, and the so-called febrile form.

In the nervous form the patient literally drops, as if from extreme exhaustion. In this form of flu the patient usually complains of severe headache and pain in the back and joints.

In the gastro-intestinal form the patient may suffer nausea and vomiting, abdominal pain and profuse diarrhea.

In the febrile form the fever is at times high and irregular and may continue for several weeks.

Probably the outstanding characteristic of influenza is the profound prostration weakness and sense of exhaustion which the patient suffers. He feels "knocked out."

Simple and uncomplicated influenza has a low fatality rate, but in so far as the disease weakens the patient and lowers his resistance, he may easily become the victim of a complication. Among the important complications of influenza is pneumonia.

The influenza sufferer therefore requires careful treatment and prolonged convalescence.

Tomorrow—Safe Childbearing

Our Dollar Stationery. 200 sheets Hammermill Bond and 100 envelopes. Your name and address printed on both for only $1 postpaid.

B. F. Shaw Printing, Dixon, Ill.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry

4816

THREE GUESSES

FOR WHAT US PRESIDENT IS THE MUSCLE SHOALS DAM NAMED?

WHAT IS THE NAME GIVEN THIS PART OF A STEP?

NAME THE JOCKEY WHO RODE 212 WINNERS IN 1932.

(Answers on Page 11)

AT LAST... Something New in Spring Clothes

It's stripes and plaids in new and interesting patterns and weaves

Grays will be very popular and tans and browns will run a close second

But the big surprise will be the new low prices at which these new clothes will be sold.

That announcement will come later... Watch for it

VAILE AND O'MALLEY

OHIO NEWS

By Esther Jackson

Ohio—Roy Brown made a business trip to Peoria last Monday afternoon.

R. W. Minkler, for many years a resident of this place, passed away at his home on Lawn Hill, at an early hour Wednesday morning, after an illness of many months. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Harold Garner, pastor of the Kasper M. P. Church, were held at the home on Friday afternoon and burial was made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Minkler is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Johnston and two granddaughters, Mrs. Dorothy Johnston Kelley of Chicago and Miss Margaret Johnston of this city, who have the sympathy of their many friends in their sorrow.

Charles Noonan of New Jersey, visited friends here Monday.

Joseph Braden, a prominent farmer of this locality, who had resided in this city for several years, passed away Friday night, in the Spring Valley hospital, where he had recently submitted to an operation. Mr. Braden is survived by his widow and one daughter. Funeral services were held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in this city on Monday morning and interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mike Warkins and family have moved to the John Fetzner farm south east of town, and Howard Fischer and family have moved from the Fetzner farm to a farm near LaMoille.

The Ohio Woman's Club will meet Thursday evening, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Grace Kramer. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Helen Faley and Mrs. Bertha Balm. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Maude Blanchard.

Axel Gustafson and family who have resided in the Albert Shifflet homestead for the past twenty-two years, will move to the Hoffert farm, west of town. About one hundred neighbors and friends gave them a farewell surprise party last Friday evening and presented them with a lovely gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkness and son Robert of Mendota called at the J. G. Stevenson home Wednesday afternoon.

Palmer Shifflet of Chicago spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shifflet.

The thirtieth anniversary of the Good Housekeeping Club was celebrated with a banquet in the high school auditorium Thursday evening. Mrs. Harriet Smith, Mrs. Eva Howard and Mrs. Margaret Albrecht were the committee in charge of the affair. After the banquet, Mrs. Anna Siskler sang a solo, Mrs. Mae Burke read the history of the club, Dale Doran sang a solo and Mrs. Helen Faley gave a reading. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing bridge and bingo.

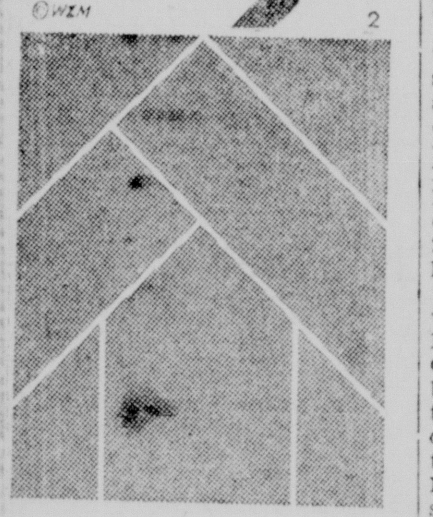

Robert Anderson returned recently from a two months visit with relatives in Denmark.

Miss Lena Lane spent last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Gaskell and family near Harmon.

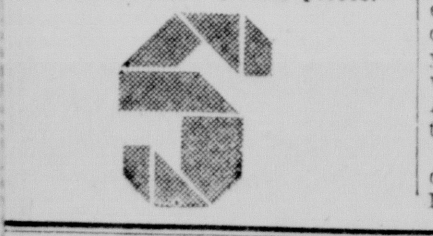

Rev. J. K. Worrell who had been ill for several weeks passed away early Sunday morning at the M. P. parsonage in this city. Rev. Worrell had been pastor of the M.

H I H O
Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

THIS ostrich will give you a good race, once you try to chase him out of the puzzle rectangle below. Cut out the seven pieces; then try to rearrange them to form the big bird's silhouette. Can you do it?

Did you make those turns without a spill? Here's the way the letter S is formed with the seven H-I-H-O puzzle pieces.

Come in and See Our New Models of Majestic Refrigerators
5 Cubic Feet $98.00 AND UP

Cromwell's Electric Shop
116 E. First Street Phone 204

Dancing For

President

The "Victory Waltz" will be danced at the Inaugural Ball in Washington March 4 by Florence Colebrook Powers and Donald Sawyer, famous dancing team from the Vernon and Irene Castle era, who were the guest dancers at Woodrow Wilson's inauguration. During the years that their dance team has been dissolved, Mrs. Powers has built up a famous dancing school in Rochester, N. Y., where many prominent dancers got their start. It took a Democratic election and a revival of graceful waltzes to reunite the Powers-Sawyer team.

Late Senator Walsh and Bride After Marriage in Cuba

This is what you get, my dear, for being the wife of a man in public life. So said the late Sen. Thomas J. Walsh who was to be Atty. Gen. in the Roosevelt cabinet, as he and his bride smilingly posed for news photographers in Miami. The 74-year-old Senator and his wife, who is the former Senora Perez Chaumont, of Cuba, had flown to Florida within a few hours after the civil and religious marriage ceremonies had been performed in Havana.

Boyd, first; Wynngene Knapp, second.

There being no contest in the soprano, Miss Leona Grant will represent the school. Edgar Shippey will represent Ashton in the baritone solo. Frances Jennings in piano and Miss Jean Root in violin. Miss Mary Heinzeroth will represent the school in oration and the Glee club and orchestra will enter the district contest.

St. John's Lutheran Aid meets March 2 at the church with Mrs. August Degner and Mrs. Eich as hostesses.

Dr. Young of Dixon will preach the evening service at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlow McCulloch were guests at the Wallace Clover home on Sunday.

In honor of the birthday anniversary of Louise Holt, Mrs. Gertrude Kliebe was hostess to the following at dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Armour Ostrom, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holt and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Remmers, sons Billy and Bob, all of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. George Irlan, Rochelle, Mr. and Mrs. Neva Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers of Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ostrom of Rockford.

Andrew Coakley of Palo Alto, Cal. arrived in Ashton this week to spend the spring and summer months.

In honor of the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Klinker, Mrs. N. C. Calhoun was hostess to her mother's Sunday school class.

Flocks of wild geese have been sighted by many of the community and meadow larks have been reported. March 1 appears to be coming in like a lamb, with sunny skies but plenty of mud underfoot.

Local farmers are beginning to plan for the season's work. Corn is entering the seed testers and oats are being fanned. George B. Hill-

Everyday Religion

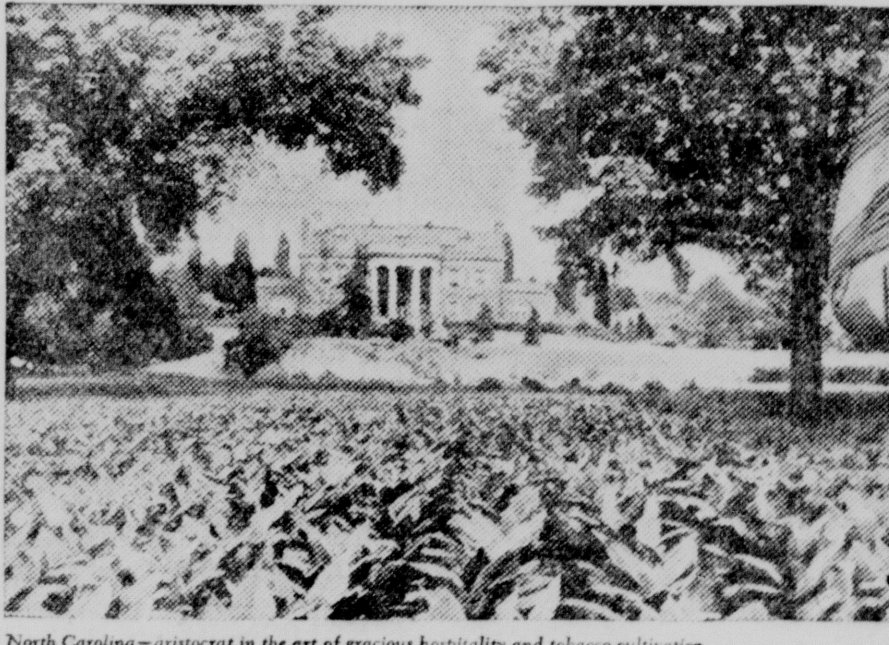

"PASSING THE BUCK"

By Dr. Joseph Fox Newton

James Truslow Adams, in his "Epic of America," draws a picture of our national character which, if not the whole truth, is true as far as it goes, warts and all. The qualities emphasized are our disregard of law, our unthinking optimism, our self-assertion, our nervous haste, our belief in money-making as a virtue, coupled with a carelessness about money when it is once gained, our racial rancor, our religious bigotry, our quantitative rather than qualitative standard of values, our resentment against critics and foreigners, our utilitarianism or aimlessness in education, our conviction that good manners are undemocratic, our preference for slipping out from under a difficult situation instead of thinking it out and fighting it through; and so on, like an untouched photograph.

All of which is true enough, as we are willing to admit in the family, in hours when we talk to each other in "the married voice" as Zona Gale would say; but we do not like foreigners to say so. None the less in spite of our defects, in the heart of America there is a Luckies Please!

North Carolina—aristocrat in the art of gracious hospitality and tobacco cultivation.

In every corner of the world, both here and overseas, wherever you find joy in life, 'tis always "Luckies Please!"

Fine tobaccos give character "Toasting" makes them mild

Come with us down South... to a great planter's fields of choice, ripe tobacco—watch him select the Cream of his Crop... then follow those leaves as they are purchased for Lucky Strike... carefully aged and blended—the finest tobaccos the world can grow—drawn from a reserve of over $100,000,000 worth! That's Character for you! Then—watch something you'll see nowhere else in the world! Follow those luscious golden leaves as they are "Toasted"... purified by the famous Lucky Strike process... the process that imparts unequalled Mildness... For these two reasons—Character and Mildness—"Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"

Famous Recipes Of Famous Chefs

LIKE all famous chefs, Jacques Gessell, Chef d' Cuisine of the Hotel New Yorker, New York City's biggest hotel, is justly proud of the recipes which have helped make him famous. Following are two of his favorite recipes: Salmon Salad—Boil one pound of fresh salmon. Let it cool and then shred it. Season with salt and pepper, oil and vinegar. When ready to serve garnish salad bowl with crisp lettuce leaves and cover with mayonnaise. Decorate top with fillet of anchovies, capers and sliced hard-boiled eggs. Chicken Salad—Chop chicken. Take a portion of chopped chicken and celery and season with salt and pepper and just a dash of vinegar. Mix plentifully with mayonnaise. Place on a slice of toasted bread and cover with strips of bacon and sliced tomato. Cover with a second slice of toasted bread.

Jacques Gessell

ing. Let us quit "passing the buck" and face up to the facts! (Copyright, 1933, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Riverside Heavy Service

TRUCK TIRES

Reduced 30%

All present stock of Riverside Heavy Service Truck Tires must be closed out to make way for a new tire to be announced shortly.

To close out the limited quantity promptly we are reducing prices already low to the lowest in all Riverside history.

Save $4.57 to $18.15 a tire! And even though the savings are tremendous, remember—EVERY TIRE IS FULLY GUARANTEED. Hurry! Buy! Save!

WAS $15.25	WAS $25.60
NOW ONLY $10.68	NOW ONLY $17.92
Save $4.57 on Size 30x5	Save $7.68 on Size 32x6 (10-PLY)

SIZE	PLIES	WAS	NOW
30x5	8*	$15.25	$10.68
32x6	10*	25.60	17.92
32x6	8*	20.70	14.49
33x5	8*	16.95	11.87
34x5	8*	18.30	12.81
34x7	10*	36.00	23.20
34x7 extra plies	12*	39.90	27.93
35x5	8*	18.75	13.13
36x6	10*	28.10	19.67
36x8	12*	51.25	35.88
36x8 extra plies	14*	56.45	39.52
38x7	10*	39.20	27.44
40x8	12*	55.00	38.50
40x8 extra plies	14*	60.50	42.35
32x6.00—20	6*	12.50	8.75
32x6.50—20	6*	16.35	11.45
34x7.00—20	8*	21.65	15.16
34x7.50—20	8*	25.95	18.17
36x8.25—20	10*	36.10	23.27
38x9.00—20	10*	45.30	31.71
38x9.75—20	12*	59.25	41.48

*Plus 2 Cord Breakers sometimes called Plies under tread by others.
*In addition to the plies indicated above, these tires have 2 breaker plies from bead to bead.

FREE TIRE MOUNTING AT ALL WARD STORES

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
80 Galena Ave. DIXON, ILL.

BODY OF HEIRESS FOUND ON HI-WAY AT PONTIAC TODAY

Married Man Who Admits Being In Her Company Is Held

BULLETIN

Pontiac, Ill., March 2.—(AP)—Livingston county authorities today were pushing their investigation of the violent death of Miss Aldine Younger, 23-year-old Pontiac girl, whose body was found along a roadside near here early yesterday.

Chemists at Rush Medical College, Chicago, will examine the organs and clothing of the dead girl. Pending report of their findings, Coroner John M. Keeley postponed indefinitely an inquest.

Dr. William D. McNally of Chicago, who performed an autopsy last night, declared she suffered a skull fracture, possibly the result of falling or "being pushed out of an automobile." He sent portions of the girl's body along with samples of blood stains and strands of hair found under the fenders of Bentley's automobile, to the laboratory.

Pontiac, Ill., Mar. 2.—(AP)—Miss Aldine Younger, 23-year-old heiress, was found dead yesterday on a highway near Pontiac, her skull fractured and her body bruised.

Police took into custody for questioning Ashere Earle Bentley, son of a wealthy retired farmer and former Mayor of Pontiac. Sheriff George A. Heckman said Bentley had admitted being in the young woman's company last night and early today.

Bentley was quoted by Sheriff Heckman as saying he and Miss Younger met at 9 P. M., went for a drive, and remained in a roadhouse near Pontiac until after midnight.

They started for home, Bentley was quoted as saying, and en route he stopped the car and fell asleep. When he awoke a short time later, Miss Younger had left the automobile, Bentley said.

About 1:30 A. M. passing motorists saw Miss Younger's body and notified authorities. Two hours later Bentley was taken from the home of his father, Alderman William Bentley, where he and his wife reside. Bentley is 35 years old.

Car May Have Hit Her

The skull fracture and bruises on her body were said by physicians to indicate Miss Younger had been struck by an automobile. They said she also might have been thrown from a moving car.

Miss Younger was considered one of the most attractive young women in Pontiac. She inherited $20,000 from her father several years and her guardian since has been charged with embezzlement in connection with handling the funds.

Mrs. Bentley was active in church and social affairs of Pontiac. Her marriage to Bentley in 1917 was a social event of Bloomington and Normal, Ill., where she formerly lived. The elder Bentley was Mayor for three terms and has been an Alderman for 30 years.

Inauguration Day May Be Rainy, Cold

Washington, Mar. 1.—(AP)—Everything is just about ready for the inauguration. The one thing lacking is assurance that the weather will be warm and bright.

A definite forecast will not be available from the Weather Bureau until Thursday, but the general outlook for the Middle Atlantic states is rain Friday or Saturday accompanied by a cold spell.

History record many rainy and snowy inaugural days. So there are anxious prayer as Washington prepares for the day of days, with thousands of visitors to make it a SYMPATHY CARDS are convenient and correct for those who wish to acknowledge flowers and courtesies shown during bereavement. For sale in small or large quantities.

B. F. SHAW PRINTING CO.

The palm or coconut crab lives almost completely on coconuts. It is a native of the East Indies.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

4816

It's Galvanized
Barbed WIRE
$2.60
(1320 foot Spool)

Enough to fence a quarter mile! 12 1/2 gauge (diameter)—standard weight. Long sharp two point barbs spaced 5 inches apart protect your property. 12 1/2 gauge (diameter).

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.

DIXON, ILL.

Illinoisans In The News At Washington, D. C.

BY GERALD MILLER

Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington.—(AP)—Meet the new Illinois Senator, Bill Dietrich of Beardstown.

A rather tall, round-faced, slightly bald, white haired, deep voiced man of 57, William H. Dietrich might have become Governor of Illinois. Instead he was elected last November to the U. S. Senate.

He took the leap from private life into the Senate after one short term as Representative-at-Large from Illinois.

He was elected to the House without considerable opposition, but his race for the Senate seat occupied by Otis P. Glenn of Robinson and Chicago was quite a different proposition. Dietrich won, but not until after considerable strenuous campaigning.

Asked why he ran for Congress, Dietrich, who generally says what he means without mincing words, replied:

"I don't know."

"Then why did you run for the senate?"

"I don't know about that, either," he continued. "I was practicing law down in Beardstown when the party leaders called me into Chicago."

"They wanted me to run for Representative-at-Large two years ago. I did, and won."

"I thought perhaps I'd run for Governor, but Chicago decided that it wanted the governorship for itself, and so I ran for the Senate and won that, too."

"How are you going to like the Senate?" he was asked.

"I don't know." He paused for a minute and fumbled around with a dozen letters on the desk in front of him. The dozen were off great stacks which covered almost every part of his office.

"How do I know?" he nally exploded. "Here I am, elected to the Senate. But, to tell the truth I don't know what a Senator is supposed to do. I always thought he was expected to represent his constituents, but from the looks of the thousands of letters I've been getting ever since election day, the people seem to want me to get them jobs."

"Why, there aren't enough government jobs in the world to satisfy all of them!"

Dietrich, who, despite his frequent bursts of impatience, generally takes time for any and all of his numerous calls at his office, started manhood by teaching school. He was eventually admitted to the bar, and took up the active practice of law in Rushville, Ill. in 1901.

After serving in a number of appointive public offices, he became County Judge of Schuyler county in 1909. Upon retirement from that office, he moved to Chicago but, as he explained, "that town was too big for me—I went to Beardstown to live."

He subsequently was elected to the state legislature, and, on several state commissions before he ran for Congress.

His theory is that more legislative work is accomplished off the floor than on, and he rarely shows up in the house for anything more than to cast his vote.

He generally avoids debate, but when he takes part in one he throws out his chest, strikes out with a clear brittle voice and says exactly what he thinks. He minces no words, thinks rapidly as he talks, studiously avoids personalities. He never runs away from an unpleasant verbal battle, but he refuses to say anything that will antagonize his opponent unless it cannot be avoided.

Dietrich makes use of all the little legislative tricks during debate. When passed, he is never hesitant about pulling the foundation from beneath an opponent's arguments by roaring:

"Well, if I overstep, charge it to my youth and inexperience, but—" And he generally goes right on saying what he started to say regardless of the obstacle thrown in his way.

Dietrich is a positive personality who becomes impatient at red tape. He insists on doing things as soon as possible, and hates the bugaboo of precedent.

Above all, he insists on being frank.

Not so long ago he was asked by a friend if he had attended to a certain matter.

"No I haven't," Dietrich said. "What's more, I don't intend to. Why lie about it?"

That's Illinois' new Senator

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN EMBROIDERY PATTERNS? IF SO READ ELSEWHERE OF SPECIAL OFFER OF SAME.

Ask to see The Telegraph's magazine offer.

4816

Science Brings these New Beauty Creams

The Skin is Cleansed in a New Way

Women have been quick to recognize the common sense of the Denton method of cleansing. The dirt is actually dissolved in the pores by the action of magnesium salts, instead of being rubbed off or out, as is the case with all soaps or ordinary cleansing creams. Such agents only loosen dirt, which must be actually removed by old fashioned washcloths or tissue. And besides, forcing heavy, greasy creams into the pores so often distends and enlarges instead of reducing them.

Denton's Magnesia Creams are light and greaseless; they penetrate the deep pores to search out dirt particles. And because the magnesium dissolves dirt immediately on contact, rubbing and massage are secondary. Thus the delicate skin structure is protected and enlarged pores are quickly reduced. So soothing and gentle is the action of magnesium that it is the first thing given to babies. As incorporated in the special Denton formula, it likewise becomes indispensable to the woman who wants her skin to retain the glowing freshness of youth.

Just as important as the cleansing power of magnesium is its long recognized ability to neutralize acids. Dermatologists now know that it is just as necessary to neutralize skin acids as it is those of the mouth or stomach. From the twenty or more ounces of acid excretion that the normal skin must throw off each day, comes coarse texture, enlarged, clogged pores, or dry skin. Every woman knows the effect of such acids on dainty undergarments. They act the same on the skin, especially the young new skin growing under the outer epidermis.

Denton's Magnesia Creams neutralize the acids lurking deep in the skin pores, and thus keep the texture soft and lovely. After cleansing with the Magnesia Creme, use Denton's Nourishing Cream to feed the growing skin cells. With this simple treatment every woman can take into the dreaded thirties youth's soft lovely glowing complexion.

● Make this Test Today. Try Denton's for ten days. Compare with your favorite cream. If you don't think them better your money will be cheerfully refunded.

use DENTON'S magnesia creams

TO CLEANSE • CLEAR • AND REFINE THE SKIN

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

In the New York Stage News 'Merry Widow' To Be In Tune With the Times

Jeanette MacDonald (above) who will sing and play in the new movie version of "The Merry Widow," and Ramon Novarro (right) who is being groomed for the role of "The Prince."

floor than on, and he rarely shows up in the house for anything more than to cast his vote.

He generally avoids debate, but when he takes part in one he throws out his chest, strikes out with a clear brittle voice and says exactly what he thinks. He minces no words, thinks rapidly as he talks, studiously avoids personalities. He never runs away from an unpleasant verbal battle, but he refuses to say anything that will antagonize his opponent unless it cannot be avoided.

Dietrich makes use of all the little legislative tricks during debate. When passed, he is never hesitant about pulling the foundation from beneath an opponent's arguments by roaring:

"Well, if I overstep, charge it to my youth and inexperience, but—" And he generally goes right on saying what he started to say regardless of the obstacle thrown in his way.

Dietrich is a positive personality who becomes impatient at red tape. He insists on doing things as soon as possible, and hates the bugaboo of precedent.

Above all, he insists on being frank.

Not so long ago he was asked by a friend if he had attended to a certain matter.

"No I haven't," Dietrich said. "What's more, I don't intend to. Why lie about it?"

That's Illinois' new Senator

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN EMBROIDERY PATTERNS? IF SO READ ELSEWHERE OF SPECIAL OFFER OF SAME.

Ask to see The Telegraph's magazine offer.

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

Feb. 19, 1933. He is survived by his mother, three brothers, James Robert and Jerome, two sisters, Marjorie and Elaine. He was preceded in death by his father, the late Charles J. McLaughlin, one brother and a sister and several other close relatives and a large circle of friends who extend their sincere sympathy to the family. Funeral services took place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's church with Requiem High Mass, Rev. Father Halmaier officiating. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

It takes a lot of courage—To keep on living on. When those we love have passed away, Into the great beyond.

God wants us just to trust him That what he does is right And look beyond the darkness Until we see the light.

He knows our every heartache, Just what we have to bear But what he wants from our hearts Is the sacrifice of prayer.

We cannot read the meaning That is hid in his great plan But if we hold out faithfully Some day we'll understand.

So may we have the courage When those we loved have gone To look beyond the darkness And keep on living on.

William Todd is improving slowly.

Dr. Henry McCoy of Dixon was here Sunday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schwamburger and children and Michael Sharkey of Amboy were here Sunday visiting at the William Todd home.

Joseph Braden, a highly respected resident of Maytown passed away Friday night at the St. Margaret's Hospital, Spring Valley, death resulting from pneumonia, following an operation. Mr. Braden was a successful farmer, a good neighbor and took a keen interest in community welfare affairs. He was president of the Ohio State Bank.

He loves to mourn his passing his wife, one daughter, Anna Catherine and several other close relatives and a large circle of friends who extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family. Funeral services took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock at Immaculate Conception church, Ohio with Requiem High Mass, Rev. Father Kerins officiating. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burke were Amboy business callers Monday.

The Ladies of St. Mary's and St. Patrick's church will sponsor a card party and dance on Friday evening, March 17 at St. Patrick's hall. Further announcement concerning this party will appear in the Maytown news later.

Grand Detour News

By Mrs. Alfred Parks

Grand Detour—Mr. and Mrs. Galen Moser and family spent Thursday at the Harvey Brucker home near Franklin Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bovey of Dixon visited Mr. and Mrs. John Schoemaker Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Martha Mon spent several days the past week near Franklin Grove with her son Lee Mon and family. Lee's many friends will regret to hear of his illness, but is some better now.

Dr. and Mrs. Ryan of Chicago spent the week end at their cottage. L. S. Baker of Byron was a business caller here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wolber of near Sterling spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Orville Jones and family.

O. C. Portner sawed wood for Otis and Arthur Jones Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Senn were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winters of Oak Park.

Miss Esther Wakenight is spending some time with relatives in Rockford.

Mrs. J. D. Portner who has spent several days with her son Martin Portner and wife near Mt. Morris, returned home recently.

John T. Nolf of Oak Park and Joseph Flynn of Chicago spent Monday here calling on friends.

Ed Mon is spending a few days at the Charles Rosbrook farm.

Rev. A. B. Whitcombe and Millard Kishbaugh motored to Sterling Thursday evening with a number of Boy Scouts where they attended a Scout rally.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glessner were business callers in Dixon Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lehman are moving to a farm south of Dixon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Heatherington at the Angear hospital at Sublette a nine pound daughter.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER. 4816

SCRATCH PADS FOR SALE at The B. F. Shaw Ptg. Co. 4816

Fix up YOUR HOME

Dries in 4 Hours on Wood or Metal

Yes Ma'am . . . 4 HOURS!

Dry-Fast Enamel 89c qt

Give the old chairs and tables and woodwork a chance to be bright. Anyone can apply Dry-Fast. Comes in fifteen attractive shades, from ivory to vermillion.

MAR-PROOF VARNISH Dries in 4 hours. Even scalding suds can't hurt its brilliant gloss. . . Per quart 80c

CO-VAR COLOR VARNISH—Stains and varnishes at same time. Dries in a few hours. Per quart 55c

TREDPRUF PORCH and FLOOR PAINT—Dries hard overnight on wood, cement or composition. Tough and durable. Quart 75c

KALSOMINE—Mixes easily in hot or cold water. Easy to apply. Dries in an hour. One coat enough. 4-lb. Pkg. 35c

SPECIAL 4-INCH PAINT BRUSH—Also 4 inches long, 100% Chinese Bristles. A price you can't match elsewhere 85c

2-INCH VARNISH AND ENAMEL BRUSH—100% pure Chinese bristles in guaranteed setting 39c

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.

DIXON, ILL.

4816

4816

4816

4816

4816

Forty per cent of our daily airplane mileage is traveled at night. The United States has 90 per cent of the world's lighted airways.

The number of motor vehicles registered in Iowa on November 1 was 66,840 below the total for the same date in 1931.

Average costs of indigent patients treated at the University of Iowa hospital have been reduced 32 per cent the last three years.

Fix up YOUR CAR

Nearly 2 years now on my full set of Riversides, and I have never changed a tire . . .

... writes an enthusiastic user.

WARD'S RIVERSIDE TIRES

The above statement is from one of thousands of letters we receive from enthusiastic users.

Riversides are quality tires. Our Guarantee proves it. Here it is. Read it for yourself.

AS LOW AS $3.33 Price Each in Pairs ($9.40-21)

Size Riverside Rambler (4-Ply) Riverside Motor (6-Ply)

29x4.40-21 . . . $3.33 . . . $5.58

30x4.50-21 . . . 3.71 . . . 5.67

28x4.75-19 . . . 4.06 . . . 6.21

29x5.00-19 . . . 4.32 . . . 6.64

28x5.25-18 . . . 4.90 . . . 7.52

Other Sizes Similarly Low

And you can Trade In your worn tires as part payment when you buy Riverside De Luxe—Ward's finest.

Free Tire Mounting

Our Sales Increased 200% In 1 Year

RIVERSIDE OIL 15c qt.

In your own container

Ward's Riverside 100% Pure Pennsylvania Oil is from the Bradford Pennsylvania District which commands the highest price paid for ANY crude oil. Recommended by Ward's Bureau of Standards.

WARD'S WINTER KING BATTERY

Sizes As Low As $5.45 with your old battery

In a test conducted by Ward's Bureau of Standards under the rigid rules of the Society of Automotive Engineers, Ward's Winter King proved superior to 18 other batteries, including one selling for $10.00!

Buy a Set for Balanced Power!

RIVERSIDE SPARK PLUGS 47c

Buy spark plugs IN SET

SPORTS

OF ALL SORTS

THREE OVERTIME PERIODS IN LAST NIGHT'S CONTEST

The Battery Shop Cagers Trim Wiremakers In Hot Battle

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE STANDINGS (Third Round.)

	W	L
Ashton	3	0
Reynolds Wire Co.	2	1
Beier Loafers	1	2
Polo	1	2
Dixon Ghoul	1	2
Dixon Battery Shop	1	2

Season's Standing	W	L
Ghouls	3	5
Reynolds Wire Co.	3	5
Ashton	3	5
Polo	6	7
Beier's Loafers	5	8
Battery Shop	4	9

Results Last Night
Battery Shop, 35; Reynolds Wire Company, 23 (3 overtimes.)
Ghouls, 20; Polo, 19.
Ashton, 38; Beier's, 20.

Two of the best games of the season resulted in Wednesday night's play of the local Industrial League in the northside high school gymnasium. The "honey" of the year, and for the past few years of local basketball, saw J. Miller's basket in the third overtime session give the Battery Shop a victory over the previously undefeated Reynolds outfit by a 25-23 count. The other feature was the last half spurt by the Ghouls to trim Polo, 20-19. After jumping into a 7-1 lead in the opening quarter the Beier's Loafers lagged behind, finally losing 38-20 to Ashton.

Notice is here given to fans that next week's games will be played on Tuesday evening and not on Wednesday. Three good games match Beiers and Polo, Battery Shop and Ghouls and Reynolds and Ashton, for next Tuesday.

The first game last evening saw the Reynolds Wire team in front 6-5 at the quarter. A rally in the second period pushed the Battery Shop into a 13-9 lead at half-time. Getting five points in the next quarter the Shoppers clung to a slim 18-16 lead to start the final quarter. Here the Reynolds Wire team started hitting and with a minute to play pulled up to a 23-21 advantage. Kehrt, hit from the side to tie the count at 23-all. The first 3 minute period saw both teams going fast, each having bad breaks on their shots. It was the same thing in the second overtime session. In the third overtime period Joe Miller took a pass from Kehrt and dropped in a pretty bank shot from the side, just outside the free throw line. The Shoppers were successful in protecting their 2-point lead and won their first game this round 25-23. L. Miller had three baskets and three free shots to lead the scoring. J. Miller was second with eight points.

From the opening tip-off the Polo five led the Ghouls. It was 7-5 at the quarter and increased to 15-9 at the half's intermission. A five point jump in the next quarter left the Ghouls in arrears 17-14 at the end of the third quarter. The Ghouls continued to outscore Polo and led 20-13 with two minutes to play. Then Davis was awarded a free toss and it was good for 20-19. Polo's chances were lost when another free award was missed just as the game ended. Hilliker had four baskets to lead the scoring with Carlson second on seven points.

Beier's Loafers, whose recent upheavals when playing a leading team were becoming dangerous, jumped into a 7-1 lead before Ashton could get under way. Taking advantage of the Beier's fouls the Ashtonites forged ahead and grabbed 15 points in the second period to lead 15-10 at the half. Losing Hasselberg and later Vorhis on fouls the Beier's five succumbed in the last two quarters, finishing up with a 38-20 loss. Moyer's total for the thirteen games raised to 144 points when he grabbed the scoring honors with three baskets and eight out nine free throws. Oburn was second with 11 points.

Box Scores	B	F	P
BATTERY SHOP—
B. Bollman, f	0	0	0
J. Miller, f	4	6	3
Wickey, f	0	0	0
Kehrt, f	2	0	2
L. Miller, c	3	0	0
E. Bollman, g	2	0	0
Guthrie, g	0	0	1

TOTALS	11	3	6
REYNOLDS WIRE CO.—
Johnson, f	1	0	0
Joyce, f	3	0	0
G. Lebre, f	0	1	4
Kennedy, c	3	0	2

for BURNS

Unguentine

Relieves pain, hastens healing

E. Lebre, g	1	1	2
McDonald, g	0	0	0
Pitney, g	1	3	0

TOTALS	9	5	8
Score by quarters
Shop	5	8	5
Wire	6	3	7

TOTALS	9	2	7
POLO—
Kroh, f	2	2	1
Reynolds, f	3	0	1
Davis, c	0	0	2
Yeakel, g	1	0	0
Frey, g	2	0	1

TOTALS	8	3	5
Score by quarters
Ghouls	5	4	5
Polo	7	8	2

TOTALS	13	12	11
ASHTON—
C. Kersten, f	0	0	1
Heinz, f	1	0	1
P. Vaupel, f	3	1	1
Moye, c	3	8	2
Oburn, g	5	1	4
Stephan, g	0	0	1
R. Kersten, g	1	2	1

TOTALS	7	6	14
Score by quarters
Ashton	1	14	8
Beier's	7	3	4

SHARPE-SHOOTERS IN FINAL ACTION OF THE SCHEDULE

Rochelle High Rings the Curtain Down On Local Floor

By Don Hilliker
Tomorrow evening starting at 7 o'clock Dixon basketball fans have their final opportunity of witnessing Coach L. E. Sharpe's cagers in action on the home floor. The locals will be matched with Rochelle in a North Central double-header in the north side gymnasium.

Although the calibre and record of Dixon's prep for this season fail to class the locals in a high rating nevertheless Friday's opposition has a still more unimpressive mark for 1932-33. The only league win for Rochelle was in Mendota by a 27-18 count. Since then Mendota turned the tables and trimmed the Hubs 31-28 in an overtime. However, this does not indicate Rochelle as just a warm-up for the district tourney. With Esposito, high in the N. C. I. C. scoring, McEachern and Haas as the main parts Coach Ellis has a good outfit which so far, has enjoyed only hard luck. The strength of Rochelle is verified in repeating their comeback in the previous Dixon game. Behind and apparently out of the running Rochelle threw a real scare into Dixon with a desperate last half rally but lost 30-24. This play and the fact that they are meeting Dixon makes Rochelle a serious threat to spoil Dixon's farewell game.

To match this Coach Sharpe has a tall outfit which is striving to win tomorrow's battle and thus make a 500 mark in the league annuals. Also another win would bolster the season's record to six wins and eight defeats, a good mark when compared to the past three seasons of the cage sport. Strong, one of the longest North Central performers and one of the best, will be playing his last home game. Beech, E. Flanagan, Potts and Fordham of the first string also will appear for the last time on the local wood. Tomorrow's battle will undoubtedly see Henry and Underwood at the forwards, with Earl Flanagan ready for duty; Bellows or Beech as the pivot man, the latter's play in DeKalb warranting him a chance to start; Hasselberg and Strong at the guards. This lineup has played good basketball and should whip Rochelle.

Dixon's B team, with a record of six wins and seven losses, is the favorite to repeat its earlier 13-7 win. Rochelle has yet to win a minor conference victory and the chances are they will not take Dixon, W. Flanagan and Grove, forwards, Cinnamon, center, Krug and Kennedy, guards, will probably be the main working unit.

The last home attraction should draw a large crowd. It is the last opportunity and a heavy attendance on the part of local enthusiasts is expected.

Dixon's grade school All Stars

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengue (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "dead" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you. But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengue by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic pills, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are ineffective. Inset on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

WAGNERIAN PRELUDE TO SPRING

Old Honus Wagner Belts One After 16 Years of Inactivity

There's a bit of that swashbuckling attitude among the Pirates of the Pittsburgh training camp at Paso Robles, Calif., this spring. The reason is that old Honus Wagner, for years the wonder shortstop of the Buccaneers, is back in camp. The bowlegged Hans is the new Pirate coach, and he's shown above demonstrating how he used to smack 'em.

Hooks and Slides

THEY COME BACK—

Harry Hooper, and Tris Speaker who were two-thirds of the greatest outfield that ever lived (the other third being Duffy Lewis) are back in the game, this year. Tris has the blues, that is, the Kansas City Blues—and Hooper is going to manage the Santa Cruz Club of the California State League—if there is any California State League this year.

THE CHAMPION CORBETTS—

There have been three Young Corbets in the prize ring ... all these were laboring under an assumed name ... the first Young Corbett was William Rothwell ... and he won the featherweight championship from Terrible Terry McGovern ... the second was George Green ... who won the welterweight title from Mysterious Billy Smith ... Young Corbett III, who won the welterweight title from Jackie Fields the other night owns up that his real name is Raffaele Giordano ... the moral is: if you want to win a title call yourself Corbett.

ALL THAT GOES UP—

The Cardinals seem destined to become a shining example of the old observation that all that goes up must come down. The other day Old Sarge Street was discussing his lineup for 1933 and it doesn't look so warm — Grimes, Bottomley and Hafez, of that 1931 championship team, have gone ... Frisch is not very happy over the placed with a series of 605.

Elks Members Notice
Members of the Dixon Lodge of Elks 779, are voluntarily contributing to a fund to send the team to the national tournament on March 24 and 25.

Summary of Sunday's Game
Edwin Detweiler rolled high series with 830. Detweiler also bowled

DIXON ELKS TO SEND BOWLERS TO NATIONAL MEET

They Believe Local Stars Should Show Well In Competition

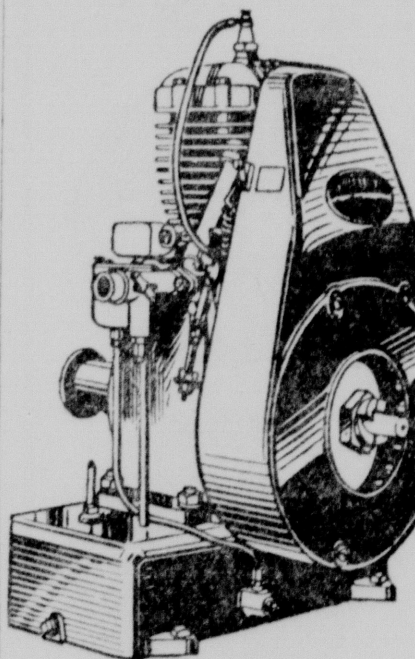

The Dixon Lodge of Elks bowling team, who are entrants in the sixteenth annual National Elks Bowling Tournament at Indianapolis, to be held March 18 to April 10, won their match with the Rockford Elks team Sunday afternoon.

The local team is practicing daily for the Elks' tournament and from the looks of their scores of late, should make a fair showing. The team is using practically the same lineup as last season, when they placed well up in the standings, bowling against an entry list of 260 teams, their team total being 2819. Ed Worley led the singles event with 629, while Lawrence Poole

HOW MODERN WOMEN LOSE FAT SAFELY

Gain Physical Vigor—Youthfulness With Clear Skin and Vivacious Eyes That Sparkle With Glorious Health.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses. Every morning take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on potatoes, butter, meat, go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—in 4 weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts—the cost is trifling and it lasts four weeks. If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—if you don't feel a superb improvement in health—so gloriously energetic—vigorously alive—your money gladly returned. But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at any drug store in the world.—Adv.

6 Hours Work on One Gallon of Gas!

1½ H.P. Aero-Type ENGINE $43.75

Here's a motor-speed engine big enough (1½ h.p.) to handle 80% of your power work, and light enough (110 lbs.) to be moved easily from job to job. Always a hot spark for quick starting—air-cooled so it can't freeze.

Its gears are perfectly machined and its forced feed lubricating system runs all day automatically. Economical, husky, all-around handy and trouble-free.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
DIXON, ILL.

C. Brander	125	140	154
G. Stevens	125	143	122
G. Peck	222	147	149
Total	757	751	749

Dixon Ladies	126	121	101
J. Jones	126	141	174
B. Missman	117	147	146
E. Glessner	155	127	145
M. Worley	144	148	111
Mrs. Daschbach	706	684	697

High single game rolled by Mrs. Peck of Rockford, who also totaled 518 for high three game series.

Rockford Elks	184	198	219	188
Peck	193	171	191	216
Devo	186	194	175	187
Lee	183	185	174	174
Moore	180	188	176	190
McKeun	926	936	935	955
Total	3752

Dixon Elks	197	203	195	199
F. Daschbach	188	192	203	191
Wm. Nixon, Jr.	207	184	201	238
E. Detweiler	228	188	174	188
C. V. Chapman	184	237	191	199
E. Worley	1004	1004	964	1015
Total	3897

DIXON LADIES LOST	141	188	151
H. Laporte	144	143	173
R. Johnson

Fix up YOUR KITCHEN

It weighs 500 lbs. (most stoves near this price weigh about 400), that's why it holds heat better and bakes better

COAL and WOOD RANGE

$49.95

It's Full Porcelain Enameled

The extra weight of cast-iron is put wherever weight is really needed for greatest strength and longest wear. Not one of its 500 lbs. is wasted.

The 6-lid cooking top is unusually large. Heat spreads through it quickly. Saves fuel.

The baking oven is full 18" wide all the way back. It's the biggest oven, for the money, you can buy.

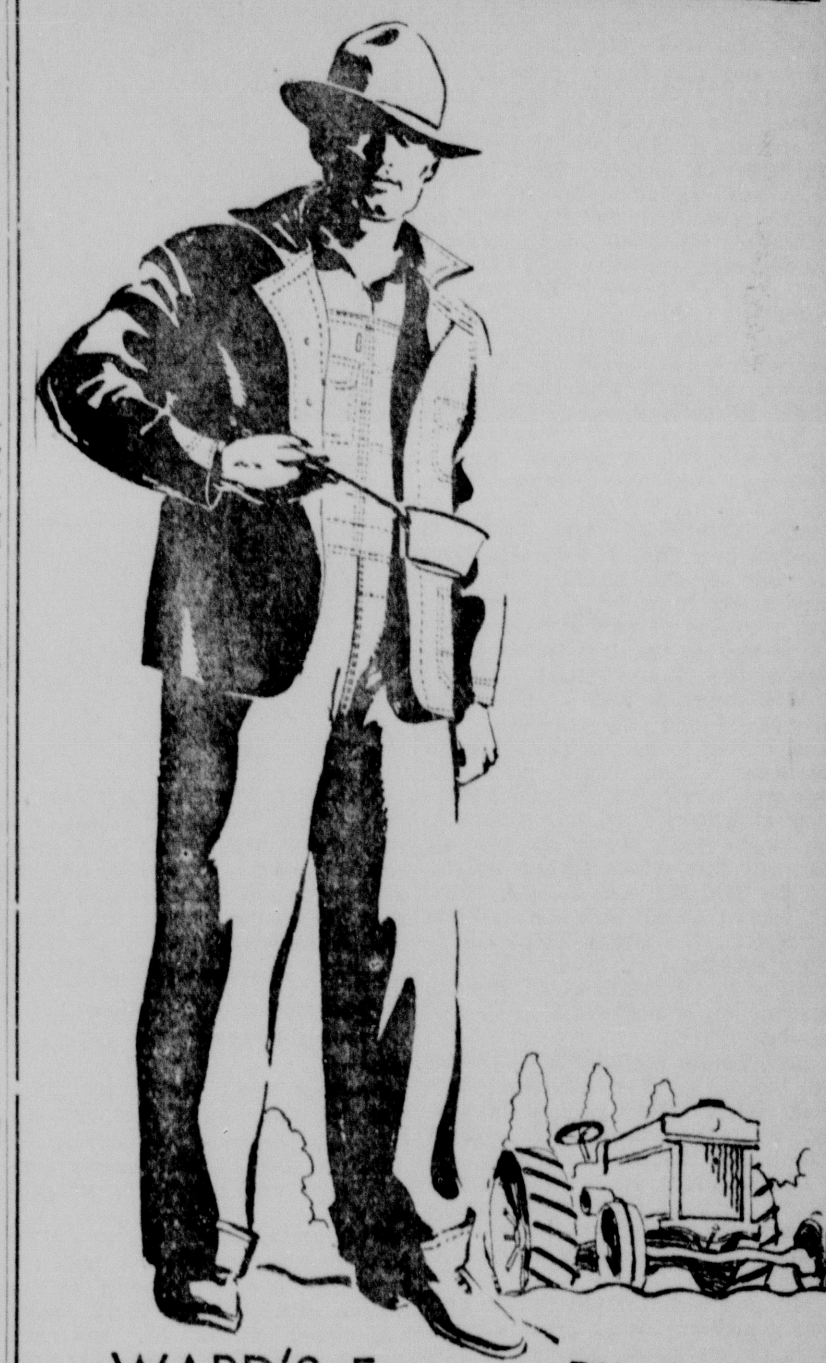

The whole range is covered (except for the back or cooking top) with the best porcelain enamel made, in ivory and spring green.

$5.00 Down; $6.50 Monthly. Small Carrying Charge.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
80 Galena Avenue DIXON, ILL.

the Phillies spring training. Completing the roster of pitchers and catchers to reach the training camp, "Jumbo" Jim Elliott, big southpaw hurler, arrived by car last night. With him was Les Malen, who declared he is determined to give Mickey Finn, the Phils new infielder, a fight for the second base position on the 1933 team.

WARDS for WORK CLOTHING

WARD'S Famous Pioneer OVERALLS and JACKETS 69¢

Farmers behind a plow—men on steel girders, husky outdoor workers... tell us ordinary overalls won't "stand the gaff!" That's why they won't wear any but PIONEERS. Rugged, sturdy, strong as iron... Pioneers are of mill-shrunk denim, with triple stitched seams, and oversized for perfect comfort. Choice of high or low back styles with plenty of convenient pockets. Regular and large sizes.

Boy's Pioneers . . . 59¢

"Barnyard Proof" WORK SHOES

Farmers tell us these comfortable blucher leather shoes won't wear out. Tough oak leather soles, both nailed and sewed. Stitched or plain toe, leather heel. Sizes 6 to 11.

1.98

Super-Pioneer WORK SHIRTS

Tough—without being stiff or bulky, that's what makes Super-Pioneers the ideal shirt! Triple stitched chambray, reinforced at strain points, full sized, re-inforced and ventilated armholes—Blue or grey.

Extra sizes 59¢ Boy's sizes 39¢

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
80 Galena Avenue DIXON, ILL.

OREGON NEWS

By Mrs. A. TILTON

Oregon—Following a five weeks' period of illness due to heart affliction, Mrs. Charles Reynolds quietly passed from life Friday at 4:00 P. M. at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Lippert, where she had resided during the past six years, and who did everything possible for her care and comfort during those years and through her illness.

America Delano Phelps was born in Rockvale township May 7, 1852. She was one of a family of six children born to George W. and Elizabeth (Palmer) Phelps pioneer family and who with John and B. T. Phelps, brothers of George, were the first white settlers in Oregon. John first coming to this section of the country in 1829, but it was not until 1833 that he decided to settle here.

The deceased was married to Charles W. A. Reynolds, May 7, 1873 and three children were born to this union, William, who died in early childhood, Mrs. Winifred Lippert and Carl P. Reynolds, both of Oregon. Her husband preceded her in death in 1922. A brother, John Phelps of this city also survives and is the last living member of the George Phelps family.

Mrs. Reynolds was a kind neighbor and friend and was ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand as long as her health permitted. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from her old home on North Sixth street, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hay, a request of the deceased, conducted by Rev. G. Eldred Marsh and she was laid to rest on the family lot at River-view cemetery.

John P. Putnam left Sunday evening on a business trip to Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Louise McRoberts was visited Sunday by her brother-in-law and sister, Attorney and Mrs. J. W. Watts and niece, Mrs. Clea Bunnell of Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sharkey and family were passengers Sunday to Aurora where they visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooke and two daughters and Fred Strong were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Brooke.

E. D. Elyre was the highest bidder for the Ogle County State Bank building, which was sold Friday morning for the sum of $20,000. For what purpose the building is to be used has not as yet been made public.

The residence of Mrs. Charles Curtis and contents were destroyed by fire early Friday morning. Mrs. Curtis is an aged widow and lived alone. The origin of the fire is not known but had gained such headway by the time help arrived that it was necessary to assist Mrs. Curtis from the building through the bedroom window.

The Public Library, which has been closed for a number of weeks for redecorating and repairing made necessary by a fire, was opened last week end. The books were all removed from the shelves and carefully cleaned, some from the children's room being damaged beyond repair. A section of the floor of this room also had to be replaced.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Blum and little son Jerry Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Murphy of Rockford were dinner guests Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Schneider.

P. L. McDonald, receiver of the Ogle County State Bank has also been appointed as receiver at the Oregon State Savings Bank, which was closed January 25, and has been opened this week for the convenience of those holding deposit boxes and other business transactions that must be cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Spinka are moving this week to the Charles Hause residence on South Fourth street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimm, former occupants, are moving to the Alpha Jones cottage.

Rev. W. J. Hyde will be in attendance at a conference of ministers being held in Wilmette.

Mrs. Glen Andrew has been selected as one of the judges at the State Flower Show, which is to be held from March 31 to April 8, at the municipal pier in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Claussen who have resided the past year on the D. M. Alter farm west of Oregon are moving to town this week to the residence of Mrs. Elsie Fisher.

The Past Noble Grands of the

TODAY'S LAUGH

"C-C-COM IN—THE WATER'S N-N-N—ICE!"—The water had a coat of ice, but these human polar bears, members of a Ken Wood, London, swimming club, were covered only with goose-flesh and bathing suits. Even if it seemed a little dippy they had to have their dip. So the girls overcame their bashfulness and broke the ice, and there you see them chattering together and turning cold shoulders toward the hesitant one at the left.

Rebekah lodge met at the home of Mrs. Alice Rumery Tuesday for a picnic luncheon.

A daughter was born Tuesday, February 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerns and has been named Floretta Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kinn of Dixon were visitors Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kinn.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Mary's church will be entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. M. A. Ripplinger on North Sixth street.

Albert Seyfarth, Sr., submitted to an operation for appendicitis Saturday morning at the Rockford City hospital and is making satisfactory recovery.

Dr. L. Warmolts performed a minor operation Saturday on Mrs. Hec Mann of Mt. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider motored to Chicago Sunday where Mrs. Schneider will resume her

CRESCENT STAR on foods above par

FRIDAYS 4 PM TUNE IN WOC-WHO

The Past Noble Grands of the work in the millinery department of the Carson, Pirie, Scott store after spending a month's vacation here.

W. J. Cameron salesman for the Illinois Northern Utility Company, was in attendance at a meeting of the General Electric Company in Chicago Tuesday.

The little fifteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rhea is being treated for an abscess on his elbow the culmination of a fall, which dislocated the joint.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sauer and family of Rochelle, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bergner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allen were visited the past week end by Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Staffa of Chicago.

The Unity Club of St. Paul's Lutheran church held their regular meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. A. Smith.

Miss Nova Rothermel spent the past week end at her home in Mt. Morris.

Mrs. Bert Richards of Janesville Wisconsin, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Lippert coming to attend the funeral services of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sauer and two children of Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMurchy and daughter of DeKalb were dinner guests Sunday at the Sauer sisters home.

Willard M. Burright suffered a broken right arm Friday in a fall from the roof of the home of Mrs. Charles Curtis, while assisting in fighting the fire which destroyed the home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hetherington had as guests last week end Mrs. L. Weekly, Mrs. Mary Maurer and daughter, Miss Mildred and Miss Thelma Bruce of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barrett of Rockford were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Leigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram O. Winter and daughters, and Mrs. Martha Wilson were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barden at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Ted Frieberg has rented the residence of Glen Chamberlain on West Washington St. Mrs. Frieberg is a trained nurse and is in the employ of Dr. Warmolts.

Miss Marie Nordman and Ehme

Vatican Station—On World's Shortest Railroad

The magnificent new Vatican City railroad station, shown here in an air view, will be the starting point of one of the most magnificent events in the history of the papal domain. For it is from here on June 15 that Pope Pius XI will journey by train into Rome for a gala celebration of the reconciliation between Church and State. With its 600 feet of tracks, the Vatican railroad, probably the shortest in the world, is connected with another line which leads to the central station in Rome.

Brass were united in marriage on Saturday, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. E. Dale. They will locate on the Crowell farm, east of Oregon.

Mrs. Henry Lohr, formerly of Mt. Morris, visited relatives here Friday, then went to the home of her daughter in DeKalb.

Mrs. K. J. Brockert of Champaign, visited relatives here Saturday. Mrs. Brockert was the former Miss Bernice Rippberger.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver of Milwaukee, Wisconsin visited relatives and friends here and at Dixon over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley of Amboy, former Oregon residents visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Rose Haight.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Schold of Rockford were dinner guests Sunday of A. S. Marshall at Simms-Cappi Cafe.

Come in and see samples of our Dollar Stationery, the biggest bargain in town. 200 sheets, 100 envelopes Hammermill Bond, name and address on both for only $1.00 postpaid. B. F. Shaw Printing Co.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

NEED JOB PRINTING? Headquarters for all kinds of job printing. Prices, quality and service right. B. F. Shaw Printing Co. Printers for over 82 years.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

Every Item a Bargain at NATIONAL THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

SILVER CRYSTAL
Finest Granulated
SUGAR
10 lb. 42¢
PURE CANE SUGAR
10 lb. 44¢

Compare our prices and be convinced that you save money on your food costs every day at our food stores. Day in and day out—month in and month out—not only our sale prices, but our everyday prices on other items, are money-savers for you. Every item is a bargain every day here.

Pineapple Amer. Home No. 2 15¢
Haw. Sliced can
Vac. Packed

Nat'l Milk Pure Evap. tall 5¢
Unsweetened can

Coffee Our Breakfast 3 lbs. in 55¢
In Moisture-proof Bag bags 1-lb. bag 19¢

Crackers Fort Dearborn 2-lb. 19¢
Salted Sodas or Graham caddy

Hershey's Chocolate 7-oz. 10¢
Kisses bag

Cornmeal Yellow or White 5-lb. 9¢ bag

★ Foods for Lent ★

Am. Cheese 14¢
Mild, Fine Flavored, Well-aged

Macaroni 25¢
Or Spaghetti—Finest Quality

Tuna Fish 2 25¢
Solid Light Meat, No Waste

Salmon 3 25¢
Fancy Alaska—Pink

We are headquarters for Lenten foods for dozens of appetizing, nourishing dishes, economical at our money-saving prices...

★ Fruits and Vegetables ★

Tomatoes Fancy 2 lbs. 23¢
Florida

Head Lettuce Fancy 3 Heads 15¢
Iceberg

Bananas Fancy 5 lbs. 25¢
Golden Ripe

Potatoes Genuine 15 lbs. 23¢
Idaho Russets

California Navel Oranges

200's 2 dozen 39¢
150's 2 dozen 49¢

Celery Fancy 3 stalks 15¢
Washed Delicious or Winesaps

Apples 5 lbs. 23¢

Seminole Tissue "Cotton Soft" 3 1000 sheet rolls 19¢

Lux Flakes For Fine Fabrics and Dishes large pkg. 21¢

Lux Soap Mild, Fragrant Toilet Soap 3 cakes 17¢

Kitchen Klenzer Hurts Dirt can 5¢
Oakite Cleans a Million Things pkg. 13¢

M. A. MURPHY G. COURTRIGHT
First and Peoria Ave. 209 W. First St.

Mr. Farmer—We pay cash for Eggs
MONEY SAVING FOOD DISTRIBUTION
NATIONAL FOOD STORES

Food A&P Stores

Fine Foods
Priced Low

Just look at the big savings on these nationally-known quality foods and fine staple foods that form the backbone of your menus. Below are just a few of the remarkable offerings. Take advantage of them this week-end! By so doing you'll make a tidy saving in your food budget.

GOLD MEDAL or
CERESOTA FLOUR 48-LB. $1.17
24-lb. Bag 59¢

SUNNYFIELD FLOUR 48-lb. 75¢
24-lb. Bag 39¢

SALMON COLD-STREAM PINK 3 16-OZ. CANS 25¢

SULTANA RED SALMON 2 16-OZ. CANS 35¢
SUNSWET LARGES PRUNES 2 1-LB. PKGS. 15¢
DAINTY SODA CRACKERS 2 1-LB. PKGS. 17¢
FANCY EVAPORATED APRICOTS 2 LBS. 25¢
GRANDMOTHER'S WHITE BREAD 16-OZ. LOAF 5¢
EXCEL PORK SAUSAGE 1 LB. 10¢
SAWYER'S GINGERSNAPS OR FIG BARS 1 LB. 10¢
IONA LIMA BEANS 4 16-OZ. CANS 25¢
SULTANA RED KIDNEY BEANS 4 16-OZ. CANS 25¢
QUAKER MAID BAKING POWDER 16-OZ. CAN 19¢
CALUMET BAKING POWDER 16-OZ. CAN 27¢
DROMEDARY PITTED DATES 2 PKGS. 35¢
Wisconsin Brick Cheese 2 lbs. 25¢
LUX TOILET SOAP 4 Cakes 25¢
IVORY SOAP 4 Cakes 17¢
ARGO GLOSS STARCH 2 1-LB. PKGS. 11¢

Creamery Butter 1 LB. 19¢
Corn FANCY QUALITY COUNTRY GENTLEMAN NO. 2 CANS 5¢
Polks Grapefruit NO. 2 CAN 10¢
Good Luck Oleo 2 LBS. 25¢
Nutley Oleo 3 1-LB. PKGS. 25¢
Apples ROME BEAUTY FANCY WASH. 5 LBS. 25¢
Celery MED. STALKS 2 FOR 13¢
Idaho Potatoes BULK NO. 1 15-LB. PECK 25¢
Bananas FIRM RIPE 3 LBS. 17¢

A&P FOOD STORES
THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO. Middle Western Division

KROGER'S FOODS for LENT

SUGAR FINE GRANULATED 10 LB. 42¢

Flour COUNTRY CLUB 24-lb. Sack—38¢

48 LB. SACK 73¢

Milk Country Club, Pet or Carnation 4 TALL CANS 19¢

Kraut AVONDALE, No. 2 1/2 Can CAN 5¢

COUNTRY CLUB CATSUP 3 14-oz. Bottles 29¢

CALIFORNIA NAVELS ORANGES 288 Size 2 doz. 33¢

NEW TEXAS CABBAGE 3 lbs. 10¢

ICEBERG LETTUCE, 5-doz. size, head 6¢

FIRM, RIPE BANANAS 4 lbs. 17¢

CHOICE MICHIGAN NAVY BEANS 10 lbs. 19¢

Apples Fancy Box Washington. DELICIOUS - WINESAPS ROME BEAUTIES 1 LB. 5¢

COUNTRY CLUB MACARONI SPAGHETTI Or NOODLES Pkg. 5¢

KELLOGG'S WHEAT FLAKES 2 pkgs. 15¢

OLEO Wondernut Brand 3 lbs. 25¢

CHEESE Colby Style Or Longhorn 2 lbs. 27¢

OIL LEASE PROBE BROUGHT FAME TO LATE SEN. WALSH

Was An Obscure Senator Until Inquiry By Senators Began

(By The Associated Press.)
(Picture On Page One.)

Springing into national prominence almost overnight as the prosecutor in the Teapot Dome oil scandal in 1924, Thomas J. Walsh, who died suddenly aboard a train this morning, became a central figure in a swiftly moving picture of political events that perhaps had no counterpart in the history of the country.

From committee room to the Senate floor and back again he delivered attack after attack on the Republican administration, and was largely instrumental in forcing the resignation of one cabinet officer and bringing about the indictment of Albert B. Fall, a former Interior Secretary, and Edward L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair on charges of criminal conspiracy in connection with the leasing of the naval oil reserves.

Coming as it did in a national political year, this service brought Senator Walsh instant recognition from the leaders of the Democratic party who selected him as permanent chairman of the turbulent New York convention. The convention would have given him further reward by choosing him for second place on the Presidential ticket with John W. Davis, but he would not permit it.

Born In Wisconsin

Born at Two Rivers, Wis., on June 12, 1859, Senator Walsh started out to be a school teacher, after receiving his education in the public schools and the University of Wisconsin, but became interested in law and began practice with his brother, Henry C. Walsh, at Redfield, S. D., in 1884. Six years later he moved to Helena, Mont.

Becoming interested in politics there Senator Walsh offered for election to the House of Representatives in 1906, but was defeated. He also was defeated for the Senate in 1910, but was elected in 1912.

Mr. Walsh had seen ten years of service in the Senate when that body decided that the secrecy surrounding the leasing of the oil reserves to Doheny and Sinclair by Fall, during the early days of the Harding administration required investigation. He had come to be recognized among his fellows as a learned lawyer, but he was little known to the country.

Uncovered Loan
When it was put underway, the oil inquiry itself created scarcely a ripple, and when weeks of the inquiry had run into months with nothing of the sensational developed it was almost lost sight of. Painstaking examination of vast volumes of the record had convinced Senator Walsh, however, that the transaction had not been wholly in the interest of the government. With this conviction he kept hammering away until Doheny furnished his sensational testimony that at the time of his negotiations with Fall for the lease of the California reserve he had loaned the then Interior Secretary $100,000 sending the money to Washington in a "little black satchel" transported by his son. This testimony lost the flood gates and as disclosure followed Senator Walsh found himself one of the most talked-of men in the country.

In the closing days of the inquiry, many of the friends of the Senator urged him to become a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, but he adhered to his original plan to support William G. McAdoo, and in a public announcement argued that the bringing of McAdoo's name into the oil inquiry as one of the several former cabinet officers employed by Doheny at one time or another had in no way inpaired his availability as a presidential candidate.

Became Arbitrator
Fate had it that Senator Walsh should become chairman of the Madison Square Garden convention, a sort of arbiter in the history making struggle between Alfred E. Smith, the New York governor and McAdoo, and also in the religious and racial row which was bound up in the controversy over a proposed platform plank denouncing the Ku Klux Klan. Like Governor Smith, whom he refused to support, the Senator was a Catholic and so no friend of the Klan, but he told the leaders of the warring factions that as presiding officer he could show no favors as to either candidates or policies.

Several times during those three teeming weeks the convention was on the point of a riot, and the Senator smashed several gavel in his efforts, frequently vain, to maintain some semblance of order. Many times his own fighting Irish blood was aroused and once or twice he threatened to clear the galleries of boisterous spectators who made the difficult work of the convention doubly hard.

Stopped Nomination

When McAdoo and Smith finally were eliminated and the convention in the late afternoon of a sweltering July day had nominated John W. Davis, the delegates set up a cry for Walsh for Vice President, and they would have stamped themselves into nominating him forthwith had he not declared the convention adjourned.

Later, informally notifying John W. Davis of his selection as the party standard bearer, Senator Walsh brought some criticism upon himself by advertising in his address to Mr. Davis' former connections as counsel for "Wall Street interests." This was a subject which Mr. Davis himself had viewed as having been closed by his pre-convention statement.

Senator Walsh's first national political service was as a delegate to the Democratic national convention in 1908. He represented his state also in the Baltimore and St. Louis conventions which nominated Woodrow Wilson and at the San Francisco convention in 1920. He married Miss Elinor C. McClellens of Chicago, in 1889. She died in 1917. They had one daughter, who became Mrs. E. C. Guder, wife of Commander Guder, U. S. N.

Senator Walsh was again made permanent chairman of the 1932 Democratic national convention held in Chicago, and was just this week named as Attorney General in President-elect Roosevelt's cabinet.

Senator Walsh was married in Havana, Cuba, February 25, to Senora Mina Perez Chaumont de Truffin.

Both civil and religious ceremonies were performed at the bride's home in the suburb of Mariano. A short time after the ceremonies they left by airplane for Miami, Florida.

Mr. Walsh and his bride have known each other two or three years, after meeting in New York. Senora Perez Chaumont's husband died in July, 1926.

Rookies Scarce In Connie Mack's Camp

Fort Myers, Fla., Mar. 2.—(AP)—Compared to other years, rookie material at the Philadelphia Athletics spring training camp is scarce, indeed.

In previous training sessions, Connie Mack has had almost 40 men, with fledglings fighting for a place in every department.

This year, none of the five outfielders are in the rookie class, while only two of the seven infielders, and one of three catchers are relegated to the fledgling division.

The 28 players in camp went through two brisk drill sessions yesterday after a pep talk by the veteran manager.

All Dixon druggists sell the best foot powder on the market. It is called Healo. Good for the feet. Being used since Civil War days.

Ask about the Dixon Telegraph's Accident Insurance.

Nat. Director Of Sea Scouting Will Visit Area

THOMAS J. KEANE

Thomas J. Keane, National Director of Sea Scouting, Boy Scouts of America, was educated as an engineer, and while spending his winters at the University, gave his summers to sailing the high seas, so that he graduated as a seaman and navigator at about the same time that he completed his college course.

After several years engaged in the practice of his profession Mr. Keane entered the U. S. Navy, spending five years in active service, during the war and afterwards, the last two years of which were spent as Aide to the Commandant, U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. He is a member of the Naval Reserve, with rank of Lieutenant Commander.

After the war Mr. Keane entered the investment banking business in Chicago, in which he remained until 1927. During this period he devoted a considerable part of his leisure time to research in boy psychology with particular reference to programs for older boys.

Out of this research and study, with the co-operation of others there has been developed the Sea Scout program of the Boy Scouts of America in its present form. The Sea Scout program presents attractive features for older boys and is designed to meet the needs of boys of fifteen and upwards. The remarkable hold which this program has upon older boys is indicated by a Sea Scout of nearly twenty thousand and a recent growth of more than 50 per cent annually.

In the course of this research, Mr. Keane became a leader of one of the first groups of Sea Scouts in Chicago and later helped to organize other groups throughout the city. Under his leadership Sea Scouting advanced rapidly until Chicago became the leading Sea Scout city in the world. As a result of his success the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America appointed him as the acting Director of Sea Scouting in a voluntary capacity, and in 1927 he was appointed the National Director of Sea Scouting.

He has two University degrees, A. A. and B. S.

Commander Keane is a writer and authority on shipping and sea history, and has written stories of the sea for boys. His new book "Lubbers Aloft," describes interestingly the maiden voyage of two boys on a freighter across the Atlantic in which the lore of the sea is brought to the reader who is introduced in non-technical and entertaining fashion to the technical forms of nautical affairs.

Mr. Keane has also lectured widely on maritime subjects and is an honorary member of many yacht clubs throughout the country.

Mr. Keane will be the guest of the Blackhawk Area Council embracing the counties of Winnebago, Boone, Lee, Ogle and Whiteside, on Saturday morning at 11:00 in the Tavern Room of the Nelson Hotel, and in the afternoon from 2:00 to 5:30 he will meet the District and Field Commissioners to explain the methods of using Sea Scout programs whereby the older boys of the Scout movement can be provided with a program to their liking.

On Saturday evening Alan Brantingham, Sea Scout Committee Chairman and a local manufacturer will entertain at a buffet supper some 35 Scout officials in honor of Mr. Keane, on Sunday from 9:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. there will be a conference of the Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters of the Blackhawk Area Council and others interested in older boy work. This is to be held at the Emmerson Brantingham Plant, General Office, Preson and Tay streets. Mr. Keane's visit to Rockford promises to provide a very attractive program for boys 15 to 21 years.

Senators Learning All About Science

Biloxi, Miss., Mar. 2.—(AP)—Manager Joe Cronin of the Washington Senators doesn't want any lost motion, such as a catcher planting himself with a step backwards, before pegging the ball.

So Cliff Bolton was given a bit of instruction on how to step up a stride, and let the ball fly for the bag.

It's all part of the "scientific baseball" the new mentor announced as part of the training curriculum.

Third baseman Cecil Travis was the latest arrival in camp. He likewise got a little of that scientific instruction.

If you have something to sell and are in a big hurry to sell it, let the classified advertising department of The Dixon Telegraph prove its ability as a speedy and efficient sales medium.

HOUSEWIVES SHOULD SPECIFY BORDEN'S MILK WHEN ORDERING SUPPLIES FROM THEIR GROCER.

Cherra Poonjee, in Assam, averages 464 inches of rain annually.

L & G SPECIALS

Tom Thumb CRACKERS, 2-lb. box	19c
COLONIAL BREAD, 1-lb. loaves	5c
Hart Pitted CHERRIES, can	10c
L & G Special COFFEE, lb.	19c
Maxwell House COFFEE, lb.	27c
Hills Bros. COFFEE—Two lbs.	65c
Del Monte COFFEE, lb.	29c
Ceresota FLOUR 48-lb. bag	$1.10
Gold Medal FLOUR 48-lb. bag	$1.13
Pan Dandy FLOUR 48-lb. bag	95c
Guaranteed FLOUR 48-lb. bag	89c
Pure CANE SUGAR 10-lb. cloth bag	45c
Pure BLACK PEPPER, 5 lbs.	$1.00
PURE COCOA 2-lb. can	19c
EVAPORATED MILK can	5c
Pure Carton LARD, lb.	5c
OHIO MATCHES 6 carton	25c
Pabst Blue Label MALT, can	25c
Durkee's SALAD DRESSING, gallon	95c
None Such COD FISH, box	29c
Fancy LITTLE NAP PEAS, 2 cans	25c
JAPAN TEA, Pan Fired, lb.	29c
Wisconsin—RUSSET 100-lb. POTATOES bag	$1.00
GOOD LUCK OLEO, 2 lbs.	25c
Yellow American CHEESE, lb.	21c
VANILLA EXTRACT value	25c
CORN MEAL—yellow or white, 10 lbs.	15c
Gold Medal—PANCAKE FLOUR, 5 lbs.	25c
Gold Medal—BUCKWHEAT FLOUR, 5 lbs.	30c
Crystal White SOAP 10 bars for	25c
WATCH DOG LYE, 3 cans	25c

Flat Wall Paint
$1.79 gal.

"Certified" flat wall paint leaves no brushmarks. It dries velvet-smooth overnight. And you can wash it easily—it wears for years.

You can have it in 14 attractive colors. Ask for our new color chart. Brushes for inside and outside painting 50c to $5.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.
DIXON, ILL.

L & G FEED CO.
313 W. First St. Phone 273
"Best for Less"

MODERN SCIENCE HELPS CERMAK TO TURN BACK DEATH

Powerful Medicine Discovered 5000 Years Ago Resorted To

Miami, Fla., Mar. 2.—(AP)—Modern medicine's scientific "magic" helped Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago stack the cards against death.

One after another, the latest medical discoveries were used to fend off the series of complications that beset the Mayor after the wound he received at the hands of Giuseppe Zangara, the man who meant to assassinate Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Mayor's own stout heart and indomitable will to get well played a big part but the attending physicians and surgeons called into play a vast amount of new medical knowledge.

The doctors were Frederick Tice, Karl A. Meyer and Frank Jirka of Chicago and E. S. Nichol and J. W. Snyder of Miami. In addition, Dr. P. B. Welch, intestinal specialist, came out of retirement to confer with the others and Dr. Walter Hamburger of Chicago, Dr. T. W. Hutson of Miami, expert on gunshot wounds, and Dr. M. M. Coplan, kidney specialist, joined in the consultations.

Used Old Medicine
A powerful medicine (ephedrine hydrochloride) discovered in China 5000 years ago but rediscovered and introduced into the United States only seven years ago was resorted to, in a desperate effort to halt the deadly colitis that sapped Cermak's strength. It was effective.

When his vitality was greatly lowered a transfusion was made with a pint of blood from the veins of Dr. R. Sam Mosley of the Jackson Memorial hospital staff. It was described as highly successful, and was regarded as the real turning point in Cermak's condition.

Another of medicine's wonders—the oxygen tent—was used successfully to help his over-worked heart and lungs supply the body's necessary oxygen. The tents supplied 40 to 50 per cent oxygen. Ordinary air contains 20 per cent.

Got Oxygen Room
An oxygen room—big enough to fit over the hospital bed and allow room enough for nurses and doctors at the bedside—was rushed from New York by plane, and Cermak was placed in it. It was ordered when he complained that the smaller tents were too confining.

When his intestines were dangerously inflamed, and diarrhoea swept what little food he could take out of his body before nourishment was obtained, the doctors were ready with intravenous injections of glucose to help him over the hurdle.

Brief Summary of Last Night's News

ILLINOIS—

(By The Associated Press.)

Springfield — Appointment of Omer Wright, Belvidere, to direct the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission pending reorganization was announced by Governor Horner. Wright has been Vice Chairman of the relief group under Edward L. Ryerson of Chicago, whose resignation took effect yesterday.

Chicago — When a spray of machine gun bullets came whistling in his direction James McCarthy, 46, dropped to the ground, sustaining only a wound in the left arm. The attack on McCarthy, a trucking contractor, took place in front of his home and police said they laid it to a strike in the ranks of the Ash Wagon Drivers' Union.

Washington — The Reconstruction Finance Corporation reported to Congress that Illinois received loans amounting to $11,628,115 during January. To Illinois and the adjoining states of Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana the corporation said it advanced $28,745,385 during the month.

Chicago — A double shooting resulted in the death of Irving Lowenthal, 34, father of four children, a few hours after he had seriously wounded Mrs. Helen Cox, 33, and then turned the gun on himself. Lowenthal's wife and their fourth child, born recently, were in a hospital at the time.

Chicago — Chicago looked forward to becoming a "seaport" today upon receiving word that the federal two-storied, "Gouverneur," a 125-foot stern-wheeler, had tied up at Lockport for the night on its trip up the new Illinois waterway, the official opening of which is not until June 15.

Let us impress upon you to read the ads every day in this paper.

THAT people should know more about the community in which they live.

If they knew more about it there would be more boosters and less knockers.

Many citizens should look around and learn some facts.

If they did they would be agreeably surprised.

They would find out many things they never knew before.

It would make them have more pride in the home city.

It would make them get busy and boost more than ever.

They would help to make their city more attractive.

Making the home city more attractive would bring more business to the city.

It would also attract many visitors who would stay long and then come back again.

Cubs Start Intra-Club Games Today

Avalon, Calif., March 2.—(AP)—

Satisfied that the recently arrived members of the second squad can stand the work, Manager Charley Grimm has intra-club games scheduled for the Chicago Cubs today and tomorrow, in preparation for the invasions of the New York Giants Saturday and Sunday.

Grimm had figured on letting the opening games of the exhibition season serve as the first tests, but found his men in such good condition that he decided to let them fight among themselves a couple of times before tackling the Giants.

A BOOK A DAY

Mark L. Requa, famous as a mining engineer and a co-worker of Herbert Hoover's has turned novelist. His first venture is titled "Grubstake," a story of mining days in old-time Nevada, and it is a fast-moving, exciting and eminently readable yarn.

Mr. Requa takes us to the boom town of Sulphide in the '70's of the last century. One Shorty, a veteran prospector chazs a wandering mule up a barren canyon, and stumbles on a fabulously rich gold vein — a bonanza big enough to make him a millionaire many times over.

The fun begins when Shorty gets back to town with his samplings for assay. The assayer turns out to be a crook. He reports to Shorty that the ore will run only a few dollars to the ton, hardly enough to make the vein worth working; but to Bill Patrick, a hard-eyed saloon keeper, he reveals its true worth, and he and Patrick scheme to get it away from Shorty before he finds out what a prize he has got.

The rest of the story tells how Shorty and the two youngsters who grubstaked him foil the plot, and the book winds up with a gun battle as thrilling as the one which climaxes Wister's "Virginian."

Aside from the melodrama, the book is interesting because of the picture it gives of the old-time mining town and mining folk. The picture is well drawn and authentic. If you like "westerns" you will enjoy "Grubstake."

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN EMBROIDERY PATTERNS? IF SO READ ELSEWHERE OF SPECIAL OFFER OF SAME.

When the University of Iowa last spring awarded the greatest number of degrees of any year in its history, the presentations passed an all-time total of 25,000.

BUY BORDEN'S MILK. Patronize Home Industry.

Smart housewives are increasing their "spending money" by shopping at

MIDDLE WEST STORES CO.

103 Peoria Ave. C. BATES, Mgr. Phone B1462

Owned and Operated by Americans—JEWEL FOOD STORES, INC.—"Buy American"

Store near you offers values that will increase your savings... or give you more money to spend on other things. In addition the Profit-Sharing Premium Stamps, which you receive with each purchase, may be exchanged for valuable premiums.

DEL MONTE
Peaches SLICED OR HALVES 2 NO. 2 CANS 25c	Coffee LB. CAN 27c
Salmon RED ALASKA 1-LB. TALL CAN 15c	Milk Pel. Borden's or Carnation TALL CAN 4½c

P&G Week

AMERICAN FAMILY		CAMAY OR
Soap 5 BARS	25c	Ivory 4 BARS	19c
Flakes MED. PKG.	15c	Flakes LARGE PKG.	21c
Oxydol LARGE PKG.	19c	Soap 3 GIANT BARS	10c

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

FIRM, GOLDEN RIPE
Bananas LB.	4½c
SUNKIST—Large California Seedless
Oranges DOZ.	25c
ICEBERG LETTUCE LARGE CRISP HEAD
Lettuce	5c
FANCY SLICING TOMATOES 2 Lb.
Tomatoes	23c
TENDER STRINGLESS GREEN BEANS 2 Lb.
Green Beans	17c
EXTRA FANCY Washington Winesap Apples 4 Lb.
Apples	19c

SUNSHINE
Vanilla Wafers	19c
KRISPY CRACKERS, full lb., 14c

BORDEN'S
Cheese Sale	25c
Chateau Plain Bacon 2 PKGS.	15c
Chateau Pimento Bacon 2 PKGS.	15c
Brick Pimento Limburger	25c

LITTLE BO-PEEP
Ammonia 32-oz. BOTTLE	21c
15-oz. bottle, 2 for 25c
BOY BLUE BLUING 2 BOTTLES
Bluing	29c
GOLD MEDAL PECAN NUTS 1-lb. Bag
Nuts	15c

Three Big Specials!
Corn Niblets 3 CANS	25c
Peas 2 CANS	25c
Peas 2 CANS	29c

Illinois Emergency Relief Coupons Accepted at All Stores

BUEHLER BROTHERS, Inc.
205 First St. FRIDAY'S SPECIALS Phone 305

Cat Fish FRESH LB.	22c
HALIBUT or LAKE TROUT	15c
OYSTERS Solid Pack	33c
Pork Chops Lean Cuts LB.	9c
Hamburg All Beef LB.	7c

SQUARE TONS of Real Quality Coal
WILBUR'S FUEL & BLDG. MATERIAL
PHONE 6

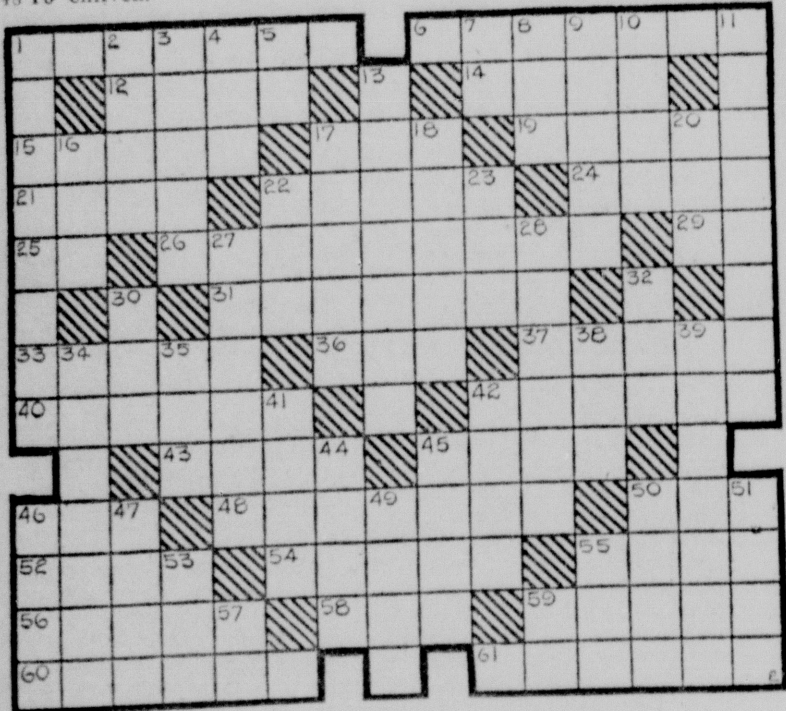

Emerald Isle

HORIZONTAL
1 Italian town famous for its violin.
6 What river supplies the Irish Free State with electricity?
12 Drive.
14 Hedgehog.
15 Rock.
17 Short cask.
19 Starting bar.
21 An exploit.
22 Boring implement.
24 A pool.
25 Second note.
28 To set apart.
29 To depart.
31 Wined.
33 Speech.
35 Iniquity.
37 To insure.
40 Small cake.
42 Excluded.
43 Street car.
45 Rodents.
46 Dandy.
48 To enliven.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

REPRESENTATIVES ERROR HARD NAVE
SEASON PEAT TIE
CUMIDAS EPIC SW
CAN NEVER TELA O
RUB DAVID DAREI
ERIN LEVER MEAT
CANAL REPOT MASH
NOTES TOTEM TIT
IF FAINT TENOR T
OLAF FREE ESEAR E
NEWS EARS TORUS
SENTIENTIOUSNESS

18 Commenced.
20 Unit of energy.
22 Era.
23 Scab, or deserter.
27 Genus of spiders.
28 Auction bridge card combination.
30 Nothing.
32 The heart.
34 Cattle-fish.
35 Pussy.
38 Native metal.
39 Student group.
41 Genus of frogs.
42 Morsel.
44 Buffoon.
45 Labyrinth.
46 Actual happening.
47 To peel.
49 Written symbol.
50 Stick.
51 Bird's home.
53 Scratch.
55 Possesses.
57 Like.
59 To exist.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"Here you are, madam, a perfect match for your costume and would you care to see our new spring line?"

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH, NOTED COMPOSER, WHO WAS TOTALLY BLIND IN LATER LIFE, REGAINED HIS SIGHT A FEW HOURS BEFORE HIS DEATH.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S TWO PRESIDENTIAL TERMS WERE OF DIFFERENT DURATION, AND FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT'S TERM WILL BE STILL DIFFERENT.

RELIGIOUS WRITERS

OF EARLY TIMES DECLARED THAT THE CROSSBILL BIRD GOT ITS TWISTED BEAK WHILE ATTEMPTING TO PULL THE IRON NAILS FROM THE HANDS OF THE CRUCIFIED CHRIST.

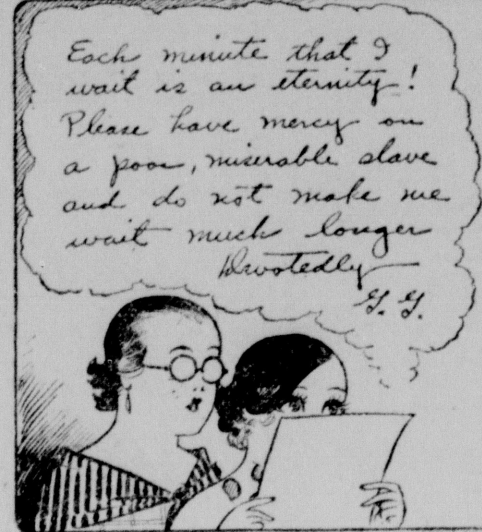

WRIGLEY'S
SPEARMINT
NOW EVEN BETTER

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Steve Has His Say!

By MARTIN

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

Just Rattles On!

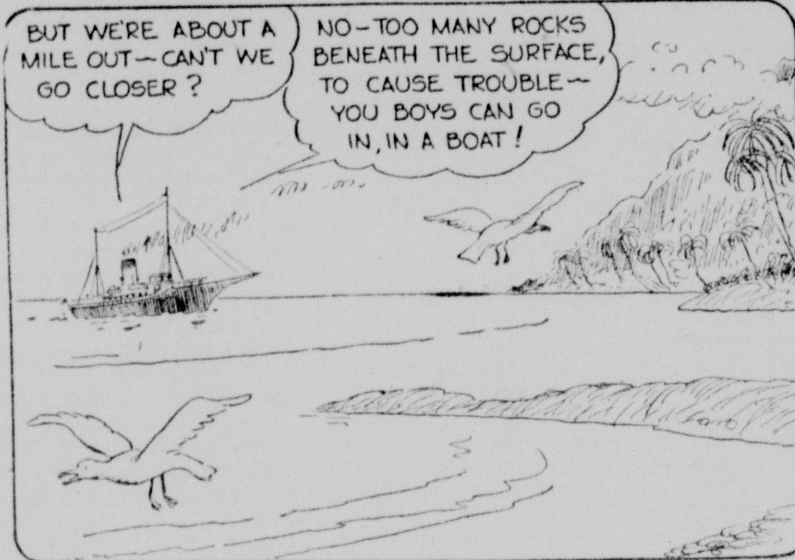

By COWAN

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Going Ashore!

By BLOSSER

SALESMAN SAM

Lucky Is Right!

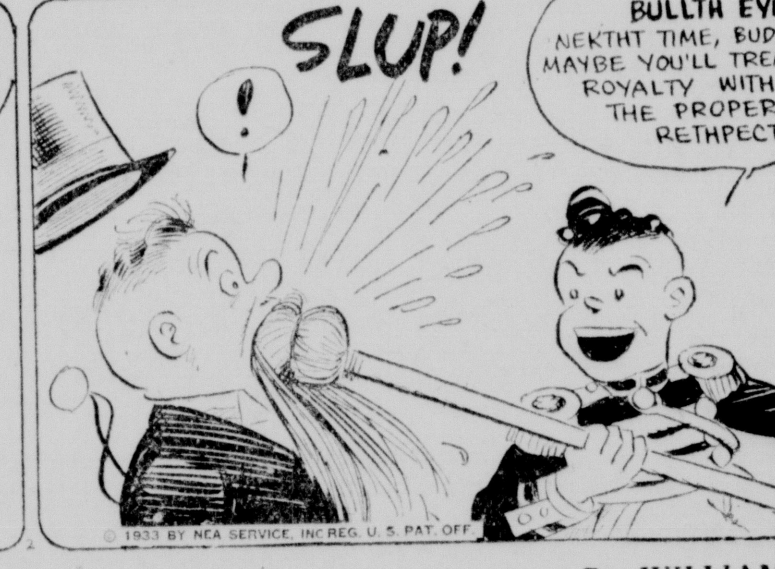

By SMALL

WASH TUBBS

A Sweet Hit!

By CRANE

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By AHERN

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS
TELEGRAPH WANT ADS

No Advertising Counted Less than 25 Words.

1 Time 2c Per Word, $.50 Minimum
3 Times 3c Per Word, .75 Minimum
6 Times 5c Per Word, 1.25 Minimum
12 Times two Weeks..... 9c Per Word, 2.25 Minimum
26 Times, one Month..... 15c Per Word, 3.75 Minimum
All Classified Ads must be accompanied by the money.
There are no exceptions to this rule.

Card of Thanks 75c Minimum
(Additional line 10c line)

Reading Notice in Society and City in Brief
Column 15c per line
Reading Notices 10c per line

NOTICE—All classified advertisement must be delivered to this office not later than 11 A. M. on day of publication.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Exceptional value—Field King Harness, 1 1/2 inch traces, 18 ft. lines, $41.95. Montgomery Ward & Co., Dixon, Ill. 5113

FOR SALE—A real bargain. Gasoline range. Automatic safety valve. $27.50. Instant lighting. Montgomery Ward & Co., Dixon, Ill. 5113

FOR SALE—Shorthorn bull, two yearling steers, Spotted Poland China sows, Rhode Island Red hens. Oliver Harms, R1, Dixon. 5113

FOR SALE—Late 1931 Model A Ford coupe, runs and looks like new; 1929 Chevrolet 6 coupe, runs and looks good; Model T Ford truck, good shape; also Model T Ford pickup. Prices reasonable. Terms or trade. Phone 12126. 5113

FOR SALE—Some value—Ward's Never Fail Incubator, 300-egg size. $19.95. Montgomery Ward & Co., Dixon, Ill. 5113

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—For horses, 25 large fall pigs, 2-year-old bull, springer cow, A. N. Saunders, 5 miles northwest of Dixon. Sugar Grove. 5113

FOR SALE—Special bargain! Automatic shallow well pump. 20-gallon capacity. $29.95. Montgomery Ward & Co., Dixon, Ill. 5113

FOR SALE—4 brood sows, 1 horse and some early seed oats. Joseph Land, Harrison, Ill. 3 miles straight north of Harmon. 5113

FOR SALE—MOTHER MILLER. White, Brown or Buff Leghorns, $5.45 per 100, $26.25 per 500. Bantams, $3.95 per 100, $19.75 per 500. Red, Wyandottes, Orpingtons, $5.95 per 100, $28.50 per 500. Miller Hatchery, Bloomington, Ill. 5011

FOR SALE—25 shares Illinois Northern Utility 6% Preferred stock. Will sell all or part. Must be sold immediately to close an estate. Address Box X. Y. Z. care Telegraph. 5113

FOR SALE OR TRADE—By owner of Dixon property for improved average or small farm. Tel. B1926. 5113

FOR SALE—Farmers: We buy poultry. We sell live and dressed poultry. Call us for prices. Phone K785. Office at 912 W. Third St. Free delivery. Hasselmann Bros. 5013

FOR SALE—Saturday, March 4th at Ben Baus barn Dixon Ill. horses, hogs, brood sows, farm machinery. Geo. Fruin, Auctioneer. 4913

FOR SALE—Used tires. Excellent selection of makes and sizes. Prices low. Come now while stock is complete. K. A. Rubey, 321 W. First St. 4815

FOR SALE—Evergreens Norway. White and Black Hill Spruces, 4 ft., windbreak and lawn specimens, $2.50 and $3.50. Apple 5-6 ft., time saving bearing are trees, 50c. Can be safely transplanted if moved early. Also some shrubbery. C. W. Bowers Nursery, Ashton, Ill. 4712

FOR SALE—Wedding invitations. Engraved or printed. Always the newest and most up-to-date. Come in and see our beautiful new samples. B. F. Shaw Printing Co. Printers for over 81 years. 111

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Modern bungalow; flat of 2, 3 or 4 large rooms and bath or sleeping room. Lovely location, large porches. Mrs. Ed. Franks, 715 W. Third St. 5113

FOR RENT—Furnished sleeping room in modern home, 319 E. Second St. Phone X480. 4811

FOR RENT—Garage on E. Second St. Call 1310 or 618 E. 2nd St. 11

FOR RENT—Two furnished light housekeeping rooms in modern home; also garage. 701 N. Ottawa Ave. Phone K433. 111

FOR RENT—$2.50 for one month. $5.00 for three months. ANY MAKE OF Typewriter. Semi-monthly deliveries. WOODSTOCK TYPEWRITER CO. 307 Mulberry St., Rockford, Ill. Phone Main 2244. 30511

FOR RENT—A garage at 515 East Second St. Mrs. F. J. Rosbrook. Tel. 326. 2721

FOR RENT—A garage near the city hospital. Tel. 326 for further information. 2721

FOR RENT—3 large lots for garden and some fruit. 7-room house. Mrs. E. Ryan 1014 S. College Ave. 1 block west of C. & N. W. depot. 28112

LOST

LOST—Shell rim glasses in black leather case. Finder Phone K1135 or leave at Telegraph office. 5113

LOST—Female English Pointer, dark brown head with 2 large spots on body. Reward. Notify Glenn Padgett, 1203 W. Seventh St. 4913

SCRATCH PADS FOR SALE at The B. F. Shaw Printing Co. 11

PRESIDENT AND SUCCESSOR BOTH
EXPRESS SORROWSudden Death Of Senator
Walsh Is Shock To Prominent Men

Washington, March 2—(AP)—Aides to President Hoover said today that he expressed "shock and surprise" when informed of the sudden death of Senator Walsh of Montana.

The Senate adopted resolutions of regret and adjourned at the outset of the day's proceedings out of respect to Senator Walsh.

Expressions of shocked surprise and regret came immediately from his colleagues in the Senate.

Vice President Curtis said: "I am greatly shocked at the passing of Senator Walsh. I extend my sincere sympathy to his family. The new administration has lost a very valuable man and the nation has lost an outstanding legislator and a man of wonderful ability."

Senator Bratton of New Mexico, a colleague of Walsh on the Senate Judiciary committee, said "his death is a distinct loss to the entire nation."

"Senator Walsh was one of our outstanding lawyers and one of our foremost Senators over a long and useful career," he added.

Mitchell Shocked

Attorney General Mitchell said: "The death of Senator Walsh is a great shock to me. We have been good friends for years and had recently been conferring together to arrange a smooth transfer of responsibility for the Department of Justice."

"I had the highest respect for his great abilities and rugged honesty. Just at this time when quick decisions are necessary, Senator Walsh's knowledge of the operations of the federal government would have been of inestimable value as legal adviser to the incoming administration."

ROOSEVELT FEELS LOSS

New York, March 2—(AP)—President-elect Roosevelt spoke of the death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, his Attorney General, today as a "grievous loss to the whole country."

"The death of Senator Walsh," Roosevelt said in a statement issued soon after he was informed of the Montana Senator's death, "is a grievous loss not only to the whole country and to the incoming administration in which he was to play so prominent and important a part, but in deep measure to myself personally."

"He was one of my oldest and most trusted friends and one on whom calm judgment I could always rely."

"While properly to fill his place in my cabinet will be difficult, to fill his place in the circle of my friends will be impossible."

Mr. Roosevelt heard the startling announcement of the death of the Montana Senator, whom he had announced just two days previous as his Attorney General, while getting ready to depart for Washington for his inauguration.

The President-elect issued his words of regret through Marvin H. MacIntyre, one of his secretaries.

There was no hint of whether the President-elect would fill the vacancy in his cabinet before he takes office on Saturday.

Already many names have been heard in the discussion of a possible successor. Prominent among them are Arthur Mullen of Nebraska and Professor Felix Frankfurter of Massachusetts.

George H. Dern, Secretary of War in the Roosevelt cabinet, said: "Senator Walsh was one of the great men of the country. He would have been a strong man in the cabinet. His death is a great loss to the administration."

"I am inexpressibly shocked and grieved at the news," said William H. Woodin, Secretary of the Treasury for the new administration. His death is a great loss to the country."

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy in the Wilson cabinet, said:

"In the period that he served in the Senate no one else rendered such distinguished service as Senator Walsh. If he had been in Great Britain he would have been knighted for his championship of natural reserves and his punishment of wrong in high places. His selection as Attorney General was hailed by the country as the best that could have been made. The nation has sustained an irreparable loss in his death."

Colby's Comment

Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet: "The sudden passing of Senator Walsh is a great shock. It deprives the government of an outstanding man upon whom the whole people placed their unqualified reliance. He was a man of the most brilliant capacities with a record of courageous and effective public service which was unsurpassed in his generation. I am deeply grieved also at the loss of a personal friend of great charm and rare quality."

Claude G. Bowers, Democratic keynoter of 1928, said: "Senator Walsh has an established place in history as one of the greatest reformers and one of the greatest minds we have had in public life. We think of him primarily as a man of extraordinary intellectual power, an intellectual machine, but underneath he was one of the most humane and human men I have ever known."

James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, said: "Senator Walsh's death is a great loss to the United States."

RADIO SERVICE

RADIO REPAIR SERVICE
CHESTER BARRIAGE
Phone 650. 107 East First St. 511

which needs fearless men like him in public life. With his fearlessness and profound knowledge of law he would have placed the Attorney General's office on a very high plane that would have been felt all through the country. His loss from that office as well as from public life is a great loss to the country. My wife came from Montana and we have interests out there. I had known Senator Walsh for many years and considered him the most honest and courageous man of high character who has appeared in public life in this country."

Other Comment

Colonel E. M. House, confidential adviser to the late President Wilson,

"He was one of the finest men I ever knew. His death is a great loss to the nation and to the new administration."

Oswald Garrison Villard, contributing editor of the Nation, said "The United States has lost one of the best, one of the ablest and most devoted public servants. His record in the Senate has been one of the very best in recent years. His courage and determination as a prosecutor were shown at their best in the oil scandals and the same vigorous determination to uphold the honor of the United States and to prosecute the guilty marked his entire career. I deeply mourn his passing, both for personal and public reasons."

Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor for the Roosevelt cabinet:

"I am inexpressibly shocked to learn of the death of Senator Walsh. I had been looking forward to receiving his help and advice."

MONTANAS STUNNED

Helena, Mont., Mar. 2—(AP)—Montana was stunned on receiving news before 6 A. M. today Senator Thomas J. Walsh had died suddenly on a train in North Carolina.

This news coming as a tragic anti-climax to the startling news of last week of his marriage in Havana and his designation previously as Attorney General in the cabinet of Franklin D. Roosevelt, plunged the state into deepest grief.

As a result of his many years in the Senate and his prominence in national politics, Senator Walsh was Montana's best known citizen.

COMMENT IN CHICAGO

Washington, March 2—(AP)—News of the death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh was given Henry A. Wallace, Secretary-designate of Agriculture, as he passed through Chicago en route to Washington.

"This is terrible," he exclaimed. "I did not know Senator Walsh personally but I knew him as one of the great men of our day. It will be most difficult to fill his shoes as Attorney General in the new cabinet."

Charles G. Dawes, former Vice-President, commented: "Senator Walsh's death brings a loss to the country and to his party that will be universally mourned. His loss is irreparable."

Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank and leading Democrat: "I considered Senator Walsh one of the ablest Senators. His sterling integrity, his intense Americanism, and his eloquent and incisive mode of speaking made him a striking character. His loss is not only a matter of personal grief but a blow to the nation."

There was no hint of whether the President-elect would fill the vacancy in his cabinet before he takes office on Saturday.

Already many names have been heard in the discussion of a possible successor. Prominent among them are Arthur Mullen of Nebraska and Professor Felix Frankfurter of Massachusetts.

George H. Dern, Secretary of War in the Roosevelt cabinet, said: "Senator Walsh was one of the great men of the country. He would have been a strong man in the cabinet. His death is a great loss to the administration."

"I am inexpressibly shocked and grieved at the news," said William H. Woodin, Secretary of the Treasury for the new administration. His death is a great loss to the country."

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy in the Wilson cabinet, said:

"In the period that he served in the Senate no one else rendered such distinguished service as Senator Walsh. If he had been in Great Britain he would have been knighted for his championship of natural reserves and his punishment of wrong in high places. His selection as Attorney General was hailed by the country as the best that could have been made. The nation has sustained an irreparable loss in his death."

Colby's Comment

Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet: "The sudden passing of Senator Walsh is a great shock. It deprives the government of an outstanding man upon whom the whole people placed their unqualified reliance. He was a man of the most brilliant capacities with a record of courageous and effective public service which was unsurpassed in his generation. I am deeply grieved also at the loss of a personal friend of great charm and rare quality."

Claude G. Bowers, Democratic keynoter of 1928, said: "Senator Walsh has an established place in history as one of the greatest reformers and one of the greatest minds we have had in public life. We think of him primarily as a man of extraordinary intellectual power, an intellectual machine, but underneath he was one of the most humane and human men I have ever known."

James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, said: "Senator Walsh's death is a great loss to the United States."

RADIO SERVICE

RADIO REPAIR SERVICE
CHESTER BARRIAGE
Phone 650. 107 East First St. 511

I Love

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

© 1933
NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JANET HILL is engaged to ROLF CARLILE, but they do not have enough money to marry. Janet is a secretary for BRUCE HAMILTON, advertising manager of Every Home Magazine, and Rolf works for the Atlas Advertising Co. Janet insists they must have $500 in a savings account before they can be married.

She hurries home from the office one Saturday to prepare a surprise birthday dinner for Rolf. On the way she sees a couple entering the fashionable Brewster Hotel Coffee Shop and at first thinks the young man is Rolf. After a moment she decides she was mistaken.

The dinner party is a success. Rolf tells Janet he cannot see her next day because he is entertaining an out-of-town friend, Sunday night. Janet is disappointed. She visits with MOLLY LAMBERT, who lives across the hall. Returning to her room, she encounters a young man she has never seen before. He introduces himself as a new roommate in the rooming house and says his name is GILBERT. Rolf takes Janet to lunch and later breaks a dinner engagement. That same night Molly tells Janet she saw Rolf entering a theater with another girl. Janet tries to convince herself Molly was mistaken. She meets Rolf the next day after work and tells him what Molly has said. Rolf explains angrily, "What of it? You know our engagement doesn't mean anything."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VII

JANET did not seem to hear what he was saying. "Then it's true!" she repeated. "Oh, Rolf—you were there!"

"Well, I'm not denying it. I don't see that it's anything to make such a fuss about, though. Is there anything wrong in going to see a show once in a while? For Lord sake, Janet, what's the use of pretending? Things can't go on this way—"

"No," she agreed. "They can't go on this way."

He looked at her, surprised at the quiet tones. Rolf hated scenes as do all men. Was Janet really going to be sensible about this?

"Listen," he said more kindly, "I know I said I was going to the wrestling match. Shouldn't have said that, I suppose. But I didn't want to—well, to hurt your feelings. Don't you see, Janet? You know as well as I do that our engagement doesn't mean anything. You don't want to get married. If you did we'd have been married months ago. You think more of that job of yours than you do of me."

She was listening now. He saw that her eyes had filled with tears. "How can you say that?" she interrupted. There was hysteria mingled with the protest in her voice. "It isn't true, Rolf! Oh, you know it isn't!"

So there was to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's believes me to be a scene after all. The young man frowned. "I don't know anything of the sort," he said shortly. "But I guess you were right about it. I can see now we'd never have made a go of it. You and I are different, Janet. We don't even like the same things!"

The girl started to speak but whatever she meant to say was lost in a half-escaping sob. "You never care if you're having a good time or not," Rolf went on. "Well, I do. I like to get out and go places, see things and know what's going on. Sitting around home evenings gives me the creeps! Work all day and save your money—that's all you think about. Well, what's the use? We've tried it for almost a year now and it doesn't work. It never will! We could go on this way for years and we'd never be any nearer getting married than we are today. It's because you don't really want to marry me."

"I wouldn't marry you now—not for anything!" Janet exclaimed.

JANET had found her voice. She sounded a little queer, not quite natural, but she said quickly, "I didn't know you felt this way, Rolf. Why didn't you tell me?"

"Good times? Sitting through movies everyone else in town has seen six months ago, dancing in cheap chop suey joints, bus rides—well that's not my idea of a good time! What does it get you? Nothing! All the pennies and nickels you and I save will never make us rich. I tell you, Janet, it's no use!"

"But you used to say you liked all those things!"

The tears were welling up in her eyes again. Perhaps it was because Carlyle felt a tinge of guilt, perhaps it was because he knew he was not blameless, yet refused to admit it, that he answered harshly.

"If I said that I didn't mean it. I'm telling you the truth now."

They had been walking along a quiet cross street. At the intersection, not a dozen yards ahead, the street led into a brightly lighted avenue. Janet could not bear the thought of those lights. She halted. The sudden anger that flared in her voice was almost as much of a surprise to the girl herself as it was to Rolf.

"So you're telling me the truth!" she exclaimed. "Then why don't you tell me about that girl you were with last night? I suppose when you were so busy Sunday you were with her, too. Oh, you needn't go on explaining! I understand. You liked to spend your evenings with me before you met her. She's the one who's changed your mind about—about everything!"

Janet made her voice as cold as his. "I'm not going home," she said. "I'm—I'm going to have dinner down town. Here, in this restaurant."

They were in front of an eating place. It was a restaurant Janet had never entered, quite an ordinary looking place. Food was the last thing in the world that she wanted then but the pretext would serve as well as any other to get away. She must get away from Rolf! This hideous quarrel couldn't go on. She wanted to get away, yet with her whole soul she wanted to stay, too. Not with the cold-eyed, smiling Rolf who was looking at her but with that other Rolf who had been affectionate and adoring. Couldn't he see she hadn't meant those terrible things she had said? Wouldn't he understand this was all a mistake?

Ho was speaking again. "Then I'll leave you," he said. It might have been any stranger using that clipped, formal tone.

For just the fraction of a second the young man paused. For just the fraction of a second Janet's eyes raised hopefully. Then with a quick gesture Rolf touched his hat brim. "Good night," he said, and was gone.

SHE stood where he had left her for several moments. She put one hand to her face and brushed away the tears. She did the same thing again without realizing that she had done it. A man and a girl were coming toward her and Janet saw that the girl looked at her curiously. Why not? People didn't stand in the middle of the sidewalk on Lombard street wiping tears from their eyes. People who were sensible didn't do such things. No wonder that girl was staring at her.

Pressing her lips together tightly, Janet turned and entered the restaurant. She found a seat at the side of the room. A waitress, short and stout and with very pink cheeks, handed her a menu card.

"Would you like the special dinner?" the waitress asked gibbly. "Veal steak with hashed brown potatoes, string beans, combination salad and choice of dessert."

Janet nodded. "Yes," she said. "That will be all right."

"Coffee to drink?"

"Yes, Coffee."

The waitress disappeared and returned with the food. Fifteen minutes later she was back again. "Is there anything wrong with the steak?" she asked. "Don't you like it?"

Janet looked down at her plate. She had not eaten so much as a mouthful. "There's nothing wrong with it," she said. "I'm—I'm just not hungry."

She raised the cup of coffee to her lips and drank some. It was cold and tasted bitter.

"If you don't like it I can get you something else," the waitress volunteered.

"No. It's all right."

A few minutes later Janet paid her check and went out into the street. She had not been in the restaurant more than 20 minutes but in that time night had descended. The street was as dark as it would be hours later. It was cold, too. Janet pulled her coat collar more closely about her throat.

There, almost where she was standing, was the place Rolf had stood. It was there he had said those terrible things. You care more for your job! We'd never make a go of it!

There were no tears in Janet's eyes now but her hand rose as though to brush away the memory of that scene. She had said terrible things, too. She had told Rolf she never wanted to see him again. She had said she wouldn't marry him. Well, he had gone. Their engagement was ended. It was all over. Everything!

She walked to the corner, turned into Center avenue and headed toward the safety zone where the street cars stopped. She had almost reached it when she paused. "Janet," she heard someone calling. "Oh, Janet—!"

BRING THE FAMILY.

STATE FAIR

Begins Lustily ... Offers Everything ... Whether You Go for Sheep and Blue Rhinocs or Shag and Blue Eyes. And, too Soon, the Court